PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 105th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 143

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1997

No. 1

House of Representatives

This being the day fixed by the 20th amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and Public Law 104-296 for the meeting of the Congress of the United States, the Members-elect of the 105th Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 noon were called to order by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, Hon. Robin H. Carle.

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Oh, gracious God, from whom we have come and to whom we belong, we offer this prayer of thanksgiving and gratitude for all the blessings You have freely bestowed on us and the people of this Nation, and also for the responsibilities that You have entrusted to those who serve in this place.

On this first day of a new Congress, we speak with the words of the Psalmist: Oh, give thanks to the Lord for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever. Grant us, oh God, a keen awareness of the areas of life where we can serve the people of the land, and, as the scripture says, let justice flow down as waters and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.

May we continue to build on the foundations laid down from the early days of the Nation, that in all things we may do justice, love mercy, and ever walk humbly with you.

May Your benediction, oh God, that is new every morning and is with us all the days of our lives, be upon all who serve in this place now and evermore, amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The CLERK. The Members-elect and their guests will please rise and join in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

The Clerk led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The CLERK. Representatives-elect, this is the day fixed by the 20th amendment to the Constitution and Public Law 104-296 for the meeting of the 105th Congress and, as the law directs, the Clerk of the House has prepared the official roll of the Representatives-elect.

Certificates of election covering 435 seats in the 105th Congress have been received by the Clerk of the House, and the names of those persons whose credentials show that they were regularly elected as Representatives in accordance with the laws of their respective States or of the United States will be called.

Without objection, the Representatives-elect will record their presence by electronic device and their names will be reported in alphabetical order by States, beginning with the State of Alabama, to determine whether a quorum is present.

There was no objection.

The call was taken by electronic device, and the following Representatives-elect responded to their names:

UNDERWOOD as Delegate from Guam.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The CLERK. Pursuant to law and to precedent, the next order of business is the election of the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress.

Nominations are now in order.

The Clerk recognizes the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BOEHNER].

Mr. BOEHNER. Madam Clerk, as chairman of the Republican Conference, I am honored and privileged to welcome my colleagues, their families, and the American people to this historic day.

Two years ago we began a new chapter in American history, one of faith in the strength, creativity and goodness of Americans; one where we humbly recognize that although the people sent us here to do their business, we cannot do our job without their consent and their support.

With their support, we began to change America by reforming Washington. And together, we will ensure our reforms improve Americans' quality of life. We will balance the budget, provide permanent tax relief, safer streets, better schools, a cleaner environment, and longer healthier lives with more affordable health care. It is an ambitious agenda, but it is what we were sent here to do. And we owe the American people nothing less.

With pride in what we have accomplished in the past and anticipation of what we can do together in the future, I am directed by a unanimous vote of the Republican Conference to present the name of the Honorable NEWT GINGRICH, a Representative-elect from the State of Georgia, for election to the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OFFERED BY MR. FAZIO OF CALIFORNIA

The CLERK. The Clerk now recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. FAZIO] for a nomination.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, I rise to a question of the highest constitutional privilege. I offer a resolution which calls for the postponement of the election of the Speaker of the House until the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct completes its work on the matters concerning Representative NEWT GINGRICH of Georgia. The resolution requires the House to proceed immediately to the election of an interim Speaker who will preside over the House until that time.

I ask for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The CLERK. Section 30 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which is codified in section 25 of title 2, United States Code, reads in part as follows:

At the first session of Congress after every general election of Representatives, the oath of office shall be administered by any Member of the House of Representatives to the Speaker; and by the Speaker to all Members and Delegates present, and to the Clerk, previous to entering on any other business.

This has been the law since June 1, 1789.

The precedent recorded in Hinds' Precedents of the House at volume 1, section 212, recites that, "at the organization of the House the motion to proceed to the election of a Speaker is of the highest privilege." On that occasion, the Clerk stated that "the duty of the House to organize itself is a duty devolved upon it by law, and any matter looking to the performance of that duty takes precedence in all parliamentary bodies of all minor questions."

The Clerk cites both the statute and the precedent as controlling her decision, consistent with the modern practice of the House, to recognize nominations for Speaker.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, given the unprecedented nature of the circumstance, I urge that the Clerk permit the Representatives-elect a vote on the motion that I have submitted.

The CLERK. Is the gentleman from California appealing the ruling of the Clerk?

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, if the gentlewoman does not permit a vote under the extraordinary circumstance we face today, I would appeal the ruling of the Clerk.

The CLERK. The gentleman may appeal from the Clerk's ruling on the question of order as to the priority of business.

The question is, Shall the decision of the Clerk stand as the judgment of the House?

Mr. BOEHNER. Madam Clerk, I move to lay the appeal on the table.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, on that I demand the yeas and nays on the motion to table made by the majority.

The CLERK. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BOEHNER] to lay the appeal on the table.

The question was taken; and the Clerk announced that the yeas and nays appeared to have it.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 222, nays 210, not voting 0, as follows:

So the motion to table was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The CLERK. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. FAZIO].

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, it was obviously the desire of the minority that we resolve our leadership issues in a different manner today given the unprecedented ethical problems that confront our last Speaker. We hope that over the next month the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct can bring us a resolution of the issues that are currently before it and allow us to resolve those issues here on the floor. And so given that hope that we will be able to work together to agree on a schedule to proceed to a conclusion of this phase, it would be then my privilege as chairman of the Democratic Caucus, directed by unanimous vote of that caucus, to present for election to the Office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress the name of the Honorable RICHARD A. GEPHARDT, a Representative-elect from the State of Missouri.

The CLERK. The Honorable NEWT GINGRICH, a Representative-elect from the State of Georgia, and the Honorable RICHARD A. GEPHARDT, a Representative-elect from the State of Missouri, have been placed in nomination.

Are there any further nominations?

There being no further nominations, the Clerk will appoint tellers.

The Clerk appoints the gentleman from California [Mr. THOMAS], the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. GEJDENSON], the gentlewoman from New Jersey [Mrs. ROUKEMA], and the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Mrs. KENNELLY].

The tellers will come forward and take their seats at the desk in front of the Speaker's rostrum.

The roll will now be called, and those responding to their names will indicate by surname the nominee of their choice.

The reading clerk will now call the roll.

The tellers having taken their places, the House proceeded to vote for the Speaker.

The following is the result of the vote:

NOT VOTING—1

Gingrich

□ 1406

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their tallies that the total number of votes cast for a person by name is 425, of which the Honorable NEWT GINGRICH of the State of Georgia has received 216, the Honorable RICHARD A. GEPHARDT of the State of Missouri has received 205, the Honorable JAMES LEACH of the State of Iowa has received 2 votes, the Honorable ROBERT MICHEL has received 1 vote, and the Honorable ROBERT WALKER has received 1 vote, with 6 voting "present."

Therefore, the Honorable NEWT GINGRICH of the State of Georgia, having received a majority of all votes cast by name for a candidate, is duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The CLERK. The gentleman from California.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Madam Clerk, a parliamentary inquiry. I simply wish to ask the Clerk at this point if the rules or the Constitution require the Speaker to receive the votes of a majority of all the Members, or is there some other rule that comes into play at a time like this?

The CLERK. The Clerk is guided by the precedent recorded in Cannon's Precedents of the House at volume 6, section 24. On that occasion in 1923, when the House also comprised 435 seats, Speaker Gillett was elected by the votes of 215 of the Members-elect present and voting by surname, a quorum being present.

The Clerk also cites Hinds' volume 1, section 216 for this principle.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Further inquiry, Madam Clerk. Had all those Members who voted present cast their vote for another Member, would that have prevented the election of the Speaker?

The CLERK. The Clerk will not respond to that inquiry.

Therefore, the Honorable NEWT GINGRICH, of the State of Georgia, is duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress, having received a majority of all votes cast by name for a candidate.

The Clerk appoints the following committee to escort the Speaker-elect to the Chair: The gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT], the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY], the gentleman from Texas [Mr. DELAY], the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BOEHNER], the gentleman from California [Mr. FAZIO], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. COLLINS], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. BISHOP], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. DEAL], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. KINGSTON], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. LINDER], the gentlewoman from Georgia [Ms. MCKINNEY], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. BARR], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. CHAMBLISS], and the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. NORWOOD].

The committee will retire from the Chamber to escort the Speaker-elect to the chair.

The Sergeant at Arms announced the Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives of the 105th Congress, who was escorted to the chair by the Committee of Escort.

□ 1415

Mr. GEPHARDT. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I will be brief. In that the Republicans have retained their majority in the House and I did not get enough votes, it is my responsibility to hand the gavel to the Speaker of the House, NEWT GINGRICH of Georgia.

Mr. GINGRICH. Thank you, DICK.

Let me say to those who voted for me, from the bottom of my heart, thank you; to those who voted for someone else, I hope that I can work with you in such a way that you feel that I am capable of being Speaker of the whole House and representing everyone.

To the freshmen and their families and all the young people who are here today, you are part of a wonderful experience. Just as in less than 2 weeks we will welcome the President for an inaugural, we here in the legislative branch also celebrate a remarkable moment which the entire world watches, a time when an entire Nation voluntarily decides how to govern itself, and does so in such a manner that there is a sense among the entire country that freedom is secure and that every citizen can participate.

This is the 105th time we have done this as a country. Every 2 years. The first one actually did not occur until April 1, 1789, because while everyone was supposed to show up in March for the brand new Congress, they could not find a quorum. And then they all came together, and there are wonderful stories by people who were there written in their diaries and their letters about the fact that they were just folks from all over, of many different backgrounds.

Back then they would all have been male and they would all have been white and they would all have been property owners. Today we have extended democracy and freedom to levels that the Founding Fathers could not have imagined, and any citizen anywhere in the planet watching through C-SPAN and through the networks and seeing this room and its diversity can appreciate the degree to which America opens its doors and its hearts to all people of all backgrounds to have a better future.

In addition to the elected Members, we are very fortunate to have a professional staff on both sides of the aisle and a professional staff serving on a nonpartisan basis.

And let me say that I think that Robin Carle stood well as the Clerk of the House in representing all of us in establishing the dignity. And I thought that in the interchanges between her and Chairman FAZIO that the world could see legitimate partisanship engaged in legitimately exactly the way it should be, in a professional, in a courteous, in a firm way on both sides. And I think that is part of what we have to teach the world.

In just a few moments, my dear friend JOHN DINGELL, who represents a tradition in his district, who has fought all these years for all that he believes in, who in the last Congress served so ably in helping pass the telecommunications bill, is going to swear me in. And I am going to ask that I will then have a chance to swear him in.

But before that, if I might, I say to my dear friend, my wife is here and my mother and my relatives. And 2 years ago they were here with my father. He is not here today, as I think all of you know. He was an infantryman. He served this country. He believed in honor, duty, country.

Let me say to the entire House that 2 years ago when I became the first Republican Speaker in 40 years, to the degree I was too brash, too self-confident, or too pushy, I apologize. To whatever degree in any way that I have brought controversy or inappropriate attention to the House, I apologize.

It is my intention to do everything I can to work with every Member of this Congress, and I would just say, as with telecommunications in Congressman DINGELL's case, on welfare reform, on line-item veto, on telecommunications reform, on steps toward a balanced budget, again and again, we found a bipartisan majority willing to pass significant legislation, willing to work together.

There is much work to be done. I have asked Chairman HENRY HYDE of the Committee on the Judiciary to look at the issue of judicial activism. He has agreed to hold hearings looking at that issue.

I think all of us should focus on increasing American jobs through world sales, and I have asked Chairman ARCHER to look at the whole issue of taxation and how it affects American job creation.

I have also asked the Ways and Means Committee to look at oversight on NAFTA, on the World Trade Organization, because the fact is, we have to move the legislative branch into the information age. If there are going to be continuing bodies around the world, then Chairman GILMAN in International Relations and Chairman ARCHER and others have to get in the habit, I think, of a kind of aggressive oversight, reporting to the Nation on whether or not our interests are being protected.

I have also asked Chairman ARCHER to prepare a series of hearings looking at the entire issue of how we revise the entire Tax Code, whether we go toward a flat tax or whether we replace the income tax with a sales tax, or what we do, but to begin a process that, frankly, may take 4 to 6 years but is the right direction for the right reason.

Finally, I have asked Chairman SPENCE on the Committee on National Security both to look at the issue of national missile defense and to look at the question of military reform.

Let me say to all of my friends on both sides of the aisle, we have every opportunity through reform to shrink the Pentagon to a triangle. We have every opportunity to apply the lessons of downsizing, the lessons of the information age, and just because something is in uniform does not mean it has to be saluted. But instead, we should be getting every penny for our taxpayers, and we in the Congress should be looking at long-term contracting as one way to dramatically lower the cost of defense.

But I want to talk about one other area, and here I just want to say there is something more than legislation. Each of us is a leader back home, and I want to just talk very briefly about three topics, and it is about these children and their America, children on both sides of the aisle, children from all backgrounds and every State.

I think we have to ask the question, as leaders, beyond legislation: How do we continue to create one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all? I believe most Americans, whether native born or immigrant, still desire for us to be one Nation. So let me briefly talk about three areas that I think are vital.

I am going to talk just a second about race, drugs, and ignorance. First let me ask all of you, do we not need to rethink our whole approach to race? And let me draw the parallel to Dick Fosbury. He was a high jumper in the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City. He developed an entire new approach which is now used by everyone, yet for 6 years the U.S. Olympic Committee rejected it.

My point is very simple. I do not believe any rational American can be comfortable with where we are on the issue of race, and I think all of us ought to take on the challenge, as leaders, beyond legislation, beyond our normal jobs, of asking some new questions in some new ways.

After all, what does race mean when, if based on merit alone, ethnic Asians would make up a clear majority at the University of California at Berkeley?

What does race mean when colleges recruit minorities in the name of inclusiveness and diversity and then segregate them in their own dormitories?

What does race mean when many Americans cannot fill out their Census forms because they are an amalgam of races?

And furthermore, if those of us who are conservatives say that bureaucracy and compulsion is not the answer, then what are we going to say to a child born in a poor neighborhood with a broken home and no one to help them rise, who has no organic contact to prosperity and has no organic contact to a better future?

I mentioned this in passing 2 years ago, and one of the failures I would take some of the responsibility for, we did not follow up. But I want to put it right on the table today that every one of us, as a leader, has an obligation to reach out beyond party and beyond ideology and as Americans to say one of the highest values we are going to spend the next 2 years on is openly dealing with the challenge of meaning that, when we say in our Declaration that we are endowed by our Creator with certain unalienable rights including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, that every child in every neighborhood of every background is endowed by God, and every time America fails to meet that, we are failing to meet God's test for the country we should be.

Let me say second about drugs, I think we have to redefine and rethink our approach to drugs.

One of my close friends had her 19-year-old sister overdose, and her 19-year-old sister today is in a coma and celebrated her 20th birthday in that coma.

Drugs are not statistics. As CHARLIE RANGEL told me at breakfast just 2 years ago, drugs are real human beings being destroyed. Drugs are real violence. If we did not have drugs in this country, the amount of spouse abuse, the amount of child abuse, the amount of violence would drop dramatically. And so I want to suggest that we should take seriously reaching across all barriers in establishing an all-out effort.

The Columbia University Center for Addiction and Substance Abuse has done a fascinating study. The Center found that one of the best predictors of whether a child will stay free of drugs is whether he or she practices a religion. Joe Califano, Lyndon Johnson's former advisor and Jimmy Carter's Secretary of Health and Human Services, says that religion is part of the solution to our drug problems and to drug treatment itself. Alcoholics Anonymous refers to a higher power.

I do not know what all the answers are, but I do know that if we love these children, in addition to fighting racism and reaching out to every child, we need to decide that we are prepared to have the equivalent of an abolitionist movement against drugs and to do what it takes so that none of these children ends up in a coma celebrating their birthday or end up dead.

Lastly, we need to pay closer attention to a word you do not hear much anymore: Ignorance. Traditionally ignorance ranked with pestilence, hunger, war as abominations upon humanity, but in recent years the word "ignorance" has been cleaned up and refined into some aspect of educational failure.

I mean by ignorance something deeper. It is not about geography in the third grade. It is about learning the work ethic, it is about learning to be a citizen, it is about learning to save, it is about all the things that make us functional. It is about the things that allow virtually everybody in this room to get up each morning and have a good life. There are too many places in America where people are born into dysfunction, educated into dysfunction and live in dysfunction, and we should find a way to reach out in this modern era and use every tool at our fingertips, from computers to television to radio to personal volunteerism, so that every family that today happens to be dysfunctional has a chance within the next few years to learn to be functional, and I think we should take ignorance as serious a problem as drugs or race.

We in the Congress have one place we have an obligation beyond any other, and that is this city, and I want to commend the gentlewoman from the District of Columbia, ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON, for the leadership she has shown and the courage she has shown day after day and week after week. She and the gentleman from Virginia, TOM DAVIS, and the gentleman from New York, JIM WALSH, worked their hearts out over the last 2 years, and I believe it is fair to say that in some ways we have begun to make progress.

It is not easy, it has to be done carefully, it cannot violate the right of the citizens of this city. But let us be candid. First, this is our national capital. We have a unique obligation on both sides of the aisle to care about Washington because we are today to Washington what a State government would be back home to your town. We have an unusual obligation to Washington.

Second, it is our national capital, and people looked at me as though I lost my mind 1½ years ago when I met with Mayor Barry and I said, "You know, our vision ought to be the finest capital city in the world," and that ought to be our vision.

And furthermore, if we are going to talk honestly about race and we are going to talk honestly about drugs and we are going to talk honestly about ignorance, we owe it to every citizen of this District, every child in this District, to have a decent chance to grow up and to go to a school that succeeds in a neighborhood that is drug-free and safe, with an expectation of getting a job in a community that actually cares about them and provides a better future, and we should take on as a Congress all responsibilities to the District of Columbia, and we should do it proudly, and we should not be ashamed to go back home and say, "You're darn right we're helping our national capital because we want you to visit it with pride, and we want you to know that you can say to anyone anywhere in the world come to America and visit Washington, it is a great city."

Let me close with this final thought, and I appreciate my friend, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. DINGELL] standing there, and I apologize for having drawn him forward particularly since he is standing on one foot. But this has been a very difficult time, and to those who agonized and ended up voting for me, I thank them. Some of this difficulty frankly I brought on myself. We will deal with that in more detail later, and I apologize to the House and the country for having done so. Some of it is part of the natural process of partisan competition.

This morning a very dear friend of mine said that he was going to pray to God that I would win today and I asked him not to and I asked him to pray to God that whatever happens is what God wants, and then we would try to understand it and learn from it. Let me put that forward in the same thing for all of us as we approach the next 2 years.

I was really struck about a month ago when I walked down to the Lincoln Memorial and I read the Second Inaugural, which is short enough to be on the wall, and 12 times in that Inaugural Lincoln refers to God. I went back and read Washington's First Inaugural, which is replete with reference to America existing within God's framework. I read Jefferson's First Inaugural, since he is often described as a deist, which refers to the importance and the power of providence. All of my colleagues can visit the Jefferson Memorial where he says, around the top it is inscribed, "I have sworn upon the altar of God Almighty eternal hostility against all forms of tyranny over the minds of man."

We have much to be proud of as Americans. This is a great and a wonderful system. We have much to be ashamed of as Americans, from drug addiction to spouse and child abuse, to children living in ignorance and poverty surrounded by the greatest wealthiest nation in the world, to a political system that clearly has to be overhauled from the ground up if it is going to be worthy of the respect we want and cherish.

I would just suggest to all of my colleagues that until we learn in a nonsectarian way, not Baptist, not Catholic, not Jewish, in a nonsectarian way, until we learn to reestablish the authority that we are endowed by our Creator, that we owe it to our Creator and that we need to seek divine guidance in what we are doing, we are not going to solve this country's problems.

In that spirit, with my colleagues' prayers and help, I will seek to be worthy of being Speaker of the House, and I will seek to work with every Member sent by their constituents to represent them in the U.S. Congress.

And I now call on my dear friend, the senior Member of the House and wonderful person, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. DINGELL]. I am ready to take the oath of office, and I ask the Dean of the House of Representatives, the honorable gentleman from Michigan [Mr. DINGELL] to administer the oath.

Mr. DINGELL then administered the oath of office to Mr. GINGRICH of Georgia, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter. So help you God.

(Applause, the Members rising.)

SWEARING IN OF MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. According to the precedents, the Chair will swear in all Members of the House at this time.

For what purpose does the gentleman from California rise?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. HUNTER. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, In lieu of requesting Representative-elect SANCHEZ to step aside, is it the fact that a notice of contest filed on behalf of Robert Dornan pursuant to the law is on file with the Clerk?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is advised by the Clerk that a notice of contest pursuant to the statute, section 382 of title 2, United States Code, has been filed with the Clerk. Under section 5 of article I of the Constitution and the statute, the House remains the judge of the elections of its Members. The seating of a Member-elect does not prejudice a contest over final right to the seat.

Mr. HOYER. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, am I correct that the gentlewoman from California [Ms. SANCHEZ], has been duly certified by the Secretary of State as duly elected from the 46th District of California?

The SPEAKER. That is the information that has been submitted to the Chair by the Clerk.

The SPEAKER. If the Members will rise, the Chair will now administer the oath of office.

The Members-elect and Delegates-elect and the Resident Commissioner-elect rose, and the Speaker administered the oath of office to them as follows:

Do you solemnly swear that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter. So help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations. You are all now Members of the U.S. Congress.

Mr. ARMEY (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). The gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY] is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the distinguished minority leader, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT], or his designee, pending which I yield myself such time as I may consume. During consideration of the resolution, all time yielded is for debate purposes only.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the time allocated to me under this previous unanimous consent request be conceded to the gentleman from New York [Mr. SOLOMON], the chairman of the Committee on Rules.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

(Mr. ARMEY asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks and to include extraneous material.)

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. SOLOMON asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks and to include extraneous material.)

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, the resolution before us today adopts the Rules of the House from the 104th Congress as the Rules of the House for the 105th Congress together with some 25 amendments thereto.

Mr. Speaker, I will be the first to concede that the House rules package certainly is not as bold and as innovative as the package of 31 House Rules changes we offered at the beginning of the 104th Congress, January 4, 1995. My colleagues will recall that historic day consumed over 14 hours as we provided for an extended debate and separate votes on major changes in how this House was going to operate. Among other things, we provided in that package for the elimination of three committees and 32 subcommittees, thereby shrinking the size of this Congress and setting an example for the rest of Government, the Federal Government down to local levels; a one-third reduction in committee staff and funding; the elimination of proxy voting in committees; a three-fifths vote on income tax rate increases; the first ever comprehensive audit of House finances; term limits on the Speaker and committee and subcommittee chairmen, like myself, who no longer can serve more than 6 years as chairman of the Committee on Rules; new sunshine rules to open committee hearings and meetings to the public, and to the broadcast media; an overhaul of the administrative operations of this House.

Mr. Speaker, today's rules package is indeed modest by comparison, and that is as it should be. We should not have to reinvent the wheel every 2 years, though we certainly should be willing to realign and to balance those wheels to ensure that they continue to turn smoothly and efficiently.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the 104th Congress was the innovative Congress. The 105th Congress will be the implementation Congress, both legislatively and procedurally. As chairman of the Committee on Rules, I made clear from the outset of my chairmanship that congressional reform is a dynamic, evolutionary and incremental process, and that we should never become complacent and rest on the reform laurels of the past. For that reason, we conducted a series of four hearings in our Committee on Rules last summer entitled, "Building on Change, Preparing for the 105th Congress", which now is starting today.

We sent a questionnaire to all House committee chairmen and to ranking minority members on that side of the aisle, assessing our past reforms and soliciting opinions on new reform proposals. We invited all House Members to testify before the Committee on Rules on their reform ideas, and some 47 House Members from both sides and both parties respond today to that invitation with both written and oral testimony before our committee.

We also heard from outside students of the Congress, from major think tanks around this country on the basis of our survey and hearings and further discussions within our Republican Conference and leadership. We bring this resolution to the House today for your consideration and your approval.

For the most part, this resolution consists of numerous minor and technical changes from the rules of the last Congress, but it nevertheless contains some significant changes which I would like to briefly summarize at this time.

I will be placing a more detailed section by section summary and analysis in the RECORD following my remarks to make a more complete legislative history. So briefly, let me just say that first we have proposed a number of rules changes that affect our committees. Committees may adopt rules or motions to permit extended questioning of witnesses beyond the usual 5-minute rule, by both Members or staff with equal time for the majority and the minority parties. Nongovernmental witnesses at committee hearings will be required to submit with their written testimony in advance their academic and professional credentials, and a disclosure by source and amount of Federal grants and contracts over the last 3 years. The prohibition on committees sitting while the House is considering amendments would be repealed.

As my colleagues know, we waived that time after time which took up a great deal of time in this body. So we feel, since both parties agreed to it last year, that we would repeal it entirely. Inflation impact statement requirement for committee reports would be repealed, but replaced by a constitutional authority statement requirement to cite the specific powers granted to Congress on which the legislation is based. Dynamic scoring estimates on major tax legislation, designated by the majority leader, could be included in Committee on Ways and Means reports for informational purposes only. Committees would be permitted to file joint reports on investigations or studies jointly conducted.

Investigation and oversight reports would be considered as read if available to committee members at least 24 hours in advance of their consideration.

□ 1500

Such reports, properly approved, could be filed after the sine die adjournment of a Congress, provided at least 7 calendar days are allowed for filing those views.

The time for filing views on the committee reports during a session would be shortened from 3 to 2 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, and committees would have the automatic right to file 1 hour after the deadline for such views.

This is a proposal made by the chairman, the gentleman from Massachusetts, [Mr. MOAKLEY], before the Joint Committee on Congressional Reform in the 103rd Congress and included in his chairman's substitute for that bill.

It was a good idea then, JOE, and it is a good idea today.

We did not object to Chairman MOAKLEY's proposal at that time when we were in the minority, and we certainly are going to offer it today in the spirit of bipartisanship.

Committees would be required, to the maximum extent feasible, to put their publications on the Internet. By publications, we intend this to include written committee materials that are otherwise made available to the public. That information ought to appear on the Internet.

The omnibus committee funding resolution could include a reserve fund for unanticipated contingencies that would not be allocated without the approval of the Committee on House Oversight. Since we are now on a 2-year committee funding cycle, this only makes good sense. It is not always possible to project committee needs 2 years in advance.

The name of the Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities would be changed to the Committee on Education and the Workforce, and the jurisdiction over the presidential budget process would be shifted from the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight to the Committee on the Budget.

Mr. Speaker, beyond these changes that affect committees, this resolution contains a few other provisions that should be noted here today. The distribution of campaign contributions on the House floor in the Speaker's lobby and in the cloakrooms would be prohibited by rules of the House.

The Speaker, in consultation with the minority leader, shall develop, and this is very important and speaks to the point that our Speaker GINGRICH made earlier this afternoon, that we shall develop a system for drug testing in the House that is comparable in scope to the system that is applied in the executive branch since 1986. What this means, in effect, is that the Speaker may require mandatory or random drug testing of we Members, officers or employees of the House of Representatives, which means our staff and anyone employed by the House, but he shall implement a system at the very least comparable in scope to the program in effect in the executive branch pursuant to Ronald Reagan's executive order 12564.

Those tests would be paid for from official expense allowances of either the Members, the committees or the officers, the departments that they run.

Mr. Speaker, let me just say, the random drug testing has been so extremely effective in the executive branch, particularly in the military where illegal drug use dropped, and Members ought to listen to this, dropped from an average of 25 percent back in the early 1980's—25 percent of the enlisted personnel were using illegal drugs in one form or another—it dropped it down to less than 5 percent in just 4 years. I have no doubt that we will accomplish the same results here in the House.

Mr. Speaker, this rule does not prejudge what means of testing may be used; that is, whether it should be urine specimen or hair sample. That will be worked out by the designated entity of the Speaker in developing this system. This is a natural follow-on to the Congressional Accountability Act, in which the Congress has applied to itself the same workplace standards that apply to the executive branch and the private sector. We should be no different than others when it comes to ensuring a drug-free workplace, and this is going to help us do that.

The definition of income tax rate increases for purpose of the three-fifths vote rule and the prohibition on retroactive tax rate increases would be confined to specified sections of the Internal Revenue Code; namely, those sections dealing with individual, corporate, and alternative minimum tax rates.

More flexibility would be allowed for considering Correction Day bills out of order on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month, and for postponing demands for rollcall votes on any amendments or motions to recommit.

Approval by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight of proposed financial settlements in Congressional Accountability Act employee complaints would be codified in House rules. That means there is going to have to be a bipartisan agreement as to those settlements. That is the way it should be, to make sure we stick within our budgetary allocations.

The right of the majority leader to offer a motion to rise and report on appropriation bills, once the final lines have been read, would have priority over other motions to amend, and so-called made-known limitation amendments would be prohibited under the new rules.

Finally, the membership and authority of the Ethics Committee of the 104th Congress with respect to matters concerning the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. GINGRICH] would be extended through January 21 of this year to permit it to report any recommendations to the House.

Mr. Speaker, that completes my summary of the substantial provisions of this resolution. There are other minor and technical changes that have been recommended by the Parliamentarian that are included in this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the RECORD the following document titled "Highlights of Provisions in Proposed House Rules Package for the 105th Congress."

The material referred to is as follows:
HIGHLIGHTS OF PROVISIONS IN PROPOSED
HOUSE RULES PACKAGE FOR THE 105TH CONGRESS

Committees could adopt rules or motions to permit designated majority and minority members to question witnesses for more than five-minutes (but not more than 30-minutes per side, per witness), and to permit questioning of witnesses by majority and minority staff on an equal time basis.

Non-governmental witnesses would be required to submit in advance, as part of their written testimony, a curriculum vitae and a disclosure by source and amount of Federal grants and contracts received by them and the organizations they represent for the current and preceding two fiscal years.

The inflation impact statement requirement for committee reports would be repealed and replaced by a required "Constitutional Authority Statement" citing the specific powers granted to Congress on which the legislation is based.

Dynamic scoring estimates could be included in Ways and Means Committee reports on major tax legislation designated by the majority leader, for informational purposes.

Committees would have automatic leave until an hour after midnight on the second day after approving a measure or matter to file their report with the Clerk if notice has been given of intention to file views.

Committees would be authorized to file joint investigative and oversight reports with other committees, and to file properly approved investigative and oversight reports after a Congress has adjourned provided at least 7 calendar days are allowed for the filing of additional and minority views.

Omnibus committee expense resolutions could include a "reserve fund" for unanticipated committee expenses, with specific allocations subject to approval.

Committees would be required to put their publications on the Internet to the maximum extent feasible.

The definition of "income tax rate increases" would be tied to specific tax rates in the IRS Code (or higher new tax rates) for purposes of the three-fifths vote rule on such increases and the prohibition on retroactive tax rate increases.

The distribution of campaign contributions on the House floor and rooms leading thereto (cloak rooms and Speaker's Lobby) would be prohibited.

The Speaker, in consultation with the Minority Leader, would develop through an appropriate House entity a system for drug testing that may include any Member, officer or employee and that is otherwise comparable in scope to the present system for drug testing in the Executive Branch.

The Ethics Committee of the 104th Congress would be extended through Jan. 21, 1997, as a select committee to complete action on its subcommittee's report on Representative Gingrich.

Sec. 17. Dynamic Estimation of Effects of Major Tax Legislation: A report by the Ways and Means Committee on major tax legislation (as designated by the majority leader in consultation with the minority leader) may include an estimate of the change in revenues resulting from the enactment of the legislation on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable dynamic macroeconomic feedback effects of such legislation. (Rule XXI, clause 5 (c) and (d))

Sec. 20. Unfunded Mandate Clarification: The current rule permitting an amendment to strike an unfunded mandate from a bill unless otherwise precluded by a special order of the House would be clarified by specifying that the reference to section 424(a)(1) of the Budget Act is to a "Federal intergovernmental mandate" whose direct costs exceed the threshold amounts specified in that section of the Budget Act. (Rule XXIII, clause 5(c))

Sec. 21. Discharge Petition Clarification: The existing discharge rule would be amended to clarify that petitions may be filed on resolutions from the Rules Committee providing for the consideration of any unreported or any reported measure (not just those reported "favorably"), that such special rules may provide for the consideration of only one measure, and that the special rule may not provide for the consideration of non-germane amendments to such a measure. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF RESOLUTION ADOPTING HOUSE RULES FOR THE 105TH CONGRESS

Introduction: As in the past, the introductory paragraph of the resolution adopts the rules of the previous Congress, in this case the 104th Congress, together with applicable provisions of law or concurrent resolution that constituted House Rules in the previous Congress, as the Rules of the House of the new Congress (the 105th Congress), together with the amendments listed in the resolution. In the case of this resolution, following this introductory paragraph are 25 sections containing direct amendments to the Rules of the 104th Congress, listed generally in the order in which the Rules are amended, from Rule I through Rule II.

Section 1. Postponement of Corrections Votes: Clause 5(b)(1) of House Rule I ("Duties of the Speaker") currently lists those matters on which the Speaker may postpone a demand for a rollcall vote until later in the same day or for up to two legislative days. These include votes on the previous question and on passing a bill. On January 20, 1995, the House adopted H. Res. 168, abolishing the Consent Calendar and replacing it with a new Corrections Calendar on which the Speaker could place bills that had been reported from committees and placed on the Union Calendar. The Corrections Calendar is called on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, and bills called from it are subject to one hour of debate, are not subject to amendments except committee amendments or amendments offered by the chairman of the primary committee or a designee, are subject to one motion to recommit with or without instructions, and require a three-fifths vote for passage. The amendment proposed by this section would extend the Speaker's right to postpone votes to amendments offered to Corrections bills and to the motion to recommit. (See section 16 below for other Corrections Calendar changes.)

Section 2. Obsolete References to the "Contingent Fund": When the Rules of the 104th Congress were adopted, the term "contingent fund" of the House was generally replaced by the term "applicable accounts of the House." However, some instances of the use of the term "contingent fund" were overlooked at that time. The purpose of this section is to replace the remaining for obsolete references to the contingent fund.

Section 3. Drug Testing in the House: This section would amend House Rule I ("Duties of the Speaker") by adding a new clause 13 that requires the Speaker, in consultation with the Minority Leader, to develop a system for drug testing in the House that may include testing of any Member, officer or employee and that is otherwise comparable in scope to the system for drug testing in the Executive Branch pursuant to Executive Order 12564. Moreover, it authorizes expenses for the new drug testing system to be paid from the applicable accounts of the House as official expenses. The policy of the Drug-free Workplace Program in the Executive Branch is to test applicants for certain positions classified as "sensitive," relating to national security, law enforcement, public health or safety, etc. Periodic random testing is also required for incumbents of these positions. The Executive Branch system authorizes the head of each agency to designate such other employees as the employer deems appropriate for such testing according to specific criteria. The Executive system does not require testing of elected officials (the President and Vice President), but cabinet officers and most sub-cabinet, Senate-confirmable officials are "preferred" for testing (except where impractical). In the case of the Executive Office of the President, which includes the White House, all applicants for employment are pre-tested, and most employees are designated for periodic, random testing. Nothing in this section should be construed as pre-determining or precluding what means of testing may be chosen by the House (whether by hair sample or urine specimen). The standard of comparability with the Executive system refers only to the scope of persons to be tested.

Section 4. Policy Direction and Oversight of Chief Administrative Officers: This section strikes the Speaker as one of two entities providing policy direction and oversight of the Chief Administrative Officer, thereby leaving this responsibility exclusively with the House Oversight Committee, as it now is with respect to other House officers.

Section 5. Budget Jurisdiction Changes: The jurisdiction of the Budget Committee is changed by striking "congressional budget process" and inserting in lieu, "budget process." The jurisdiction of the Government Reform and Oversight Committee is changed by striking "budget and accounting measures, generally," and replacing it with "Government management and accounting measures, generally." The intent of this is to give the Budget Committee jurisdiction over the President's budget process as well as the congressional budget process, and thereby to avoid duplication with the Government Reform and Oversight Committee in this area. This change will not alter Government Reform and Oversight's existing legislative jurisdiction over such matters as government management and reorganization, the Office of Management and Budget's management, regulatory, and other coordinating functions, or the General Accounting Office.

Section 6. Designating Committee on Education and the Workforce: The name of the Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities would be changed to the Committee on Education and the Workforce.

Section 7. Requirement of Approval for Settlement of Certain Complaints: This section incorporates the language of section 2 of H. Res. 401, 104th Congress, adopted by the House on a voice vote on April 16, 1996. Since a simple House resolution loses its force and effect at the end of a Congress, it was decided in this instance to incorporate its provisions in the standing Rules of the House for the 105th Congress. The section requires that before any financial settlement can be entered into by an employing office of the House with an employee under the Congressional Accountability Act, the amount of the proposed settlement must be jointly approved by the chairman and ranking minority member of the House Oversight Committee which has responsibility for monitoring House expenditures from various accounts to ensure they remain within amounts budgeted.

Section 8. Special Authorities for Certain Reports: (a) The first subsection provides that if a proposed investigative or oversight report has been made available to the members of a committee at least 24 hours prior to its consideration (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays except when the House is in session), it shall be considered as read. The purpose of this provision is to both encourage the advance distribution of such reports and to avoid prolonged delays that could result if any member demanded that the report be read in full. Since such reports, unlike bills, are not read by section or paragraph for amendment, this in no way affects the right of members to offer amendments to any portion of the report once it has been considered as read. (b) A report on an investigation or study conducted jointly by two or more committees could be filed jointly with the House. This in no way alters the requirement that each committee must act individually in compliance with House rules, including a majority quorum to approve the report and the opportunity and time for filing supplemental, minority, or additional views by members of each committee if requested at the time of the report's approval. (c) An investigative or oversight report could be filed by a committee with the Clerk after the sine die adjournment of the last regular session of the Congress, and members would have seven calendar days in which to file their views to be included with the report if timely notice is given of the intention to file views. "Timely notice" is the same as required under existing House rules: the notice must be given at the time of approval of the report. Such authority to file in the past has been secured by unanimous consent of the House or special resolution. This will obviate the need for special leave of the House for filing a report when the House is not in session. Moreover, this extends to seven calendar days time for filing views in recognition of the fact that it will probably take longer for members of the committee to develop and submit their views if the Congress had adjourned and they are away from their Washington offices. (d) The final activity reports of committees may be filed after the adjournment sine die of the last regular session of a Congress without approval of the committee, provided seven calendar days are allowed for the filing of views. The current rule for activity reports is an anomaly in that it does not technically allow for filing an unapproved reports. However, the practice of filing such reports has long been recognized as a practical matter since such reports usually are not drafted until after a Congress has finally adjourned. The right to file views with such reports has always existed, though only recognized and utilized in the last several congresses. This only changes that right to the extent that it expands to seven calendar days the time in which such views may be submitted, dating from the day on which the report is made available to the members.

Section 9. Committee Documents on the Internet: This section requires House committees, "to the maximum extent feasible," to make their "publications" available in electronic form. The purpose of this section is to encourage committees to make every effort practicable to ensure that what is available to the public in printed form also be made available electronically. It is expected that, early in the 105th Congress, further guidelines will be developed between the Committee on House Oversight, House Information Resources, and various committees, outlining what materials should be made available and on what web sites. As a general rule of thumb, the term "publications" should be interpreted to mean printed materials of the committee which are generally made available for distribution to the public.

Section 10. Information Required of Public Witnesses: Committees shall require, to the greatest extent practicable, that non-governmental witnesses include as part of their written testimony that is already required by House Rules to be submitted in advance, both a curriculum vitae and a disclosure by source and amount of federal grants and contracts received by them and any organizations they represent at that hearing in the current and preceding two fiscal years, to the extent that such information is relevant to the subject matter of, and the witness' representational capacity at, that hearing. The purpose of these new requirements is to give committee members, the public, and the press a more detailed context in which to consider a witness' testimony in terms of their education, experience, and the extent to which they or the organizations being represented have benefited from Federal grants and contracts related to their appearance. It is not the intention of this section, for instance, to require individuals to disclose the amounts of Federal entitlements they have received, such as from Medicare or Social Security or other income support payments or individual benefits, or to require farmers to disclose amounts received in crop or commodity price support payments. Instead, the disclosure requirement is designed to elicit information from those who have received Federal grants or contracts for the purpose of providing the government or other individuals or entities with specified goods, services, or information. While failure to comply fully with this requirement would not give rise to a point of order against the witness' testifying, it could result in an objection to including the witness' written testimony the hearing record in the absence of such disclosure.

Section 11. Committees' Sitzings: The prohibition on committees' sitting while the House is considering amendments under the five-minute rule is repealed. This provision had originally been repealed at the beginning of the 103rd Congress, but was re-instituted with the adoption of House Rules at the beginning of the 104th Congress. Because the requirement was waived by the House almost daily given the realities of committee and House floor scheduling, it was found to be impractical and impossible to enforce. This repeal should in no way be construed as authorizing committees to sit while the House is conducting a rollcall vote with the limited, 15-minutes in which to respond. The current prohibition on committees' sitting while there is a joint, House-Senate session or meeting would be retained.

Section 12. Exceptions to Five-Minute Rule in Hearings: Committees would be given the discretion, either by committee rule or motion, to provide an exception to the current 5-minute rule limitation on members' questioning of witnesses. The rule or motion could permit designated majority and minority party members or staff to question witnesses for a period longer than their usual, 5-minute entitlement. It is the clear intent of this rule that any such time be equally divided between the majority and minority parties. In the case of member questioning, not more than 30 minutes per party of such extended questioning could be used for any witness. A motion under this House rule would not be privileged for any member of a committee to offer. Instead, it would be at the discretion of the chair to recognize a member to offer such a motion. While the rule does not specifically limit staff questioning to 30 minutes per side, it is not expected that committees would grant a longer period for staff questioning unless all committee members present have first had an opportunity to question the witness.

Section 13. Repeal of Inflation Impact Statement Requirement; Establishment of Constitutional Authority Statement Requirement: The current House Rule requirement that committee reports on public measures include a detailed, analytical statement on whether the legislation would have an inflationary impact on prices and costs in the operation of the national economy, would be repealed. The provision would be replaced by a requirement that committees include in their reports on public bills and joint resolutions a "constitutional authority statement" citing the specific powers granted to the Congress by the Constitution to enact the proposed law. It is expected that committees will not rely only on the so-called "elastic" or "necessary and proper" clause and that they will not cite the preamble to the Constitution as a specific power granted to the Congress by the Constitution. A point of order would not lie against consideration of a bill so long as the report on the measure includes a "constitutional authority statement" that cites specific powers in the Constitution granted to the Congress on which the committee claims measure is based. A point of order would not lie on grounds that the authority statement is otherwise inadequate, inaccurate, or constitutionally unsound, since it is not within the province of the Chair, by House precedent and practice, to rule on questions of constitutionality.

Section 14. Filing of Reports After Time for Views: The current three-day time-frame for filing views on committee reports would be reduced to two days after the day on which the measure or matter is ordered reported. Moreover, committees would have the automatic right to file their reports with the Clerk up to one-hour after the expiration of this time period, provided that a request had been made to file views. Two things should be noted: first, the right for late filing of a report is not automatic if no opportunity to file views has been requested; and, second, the rule requires that committees "arrange" with the Clerk for late filing when views have been requested. They should not expect that the Clerk's office will be open late every night to receive filed reports. Finally, committees may file sooner than the expiration of the second day if they know that all views have been received. They should therefore advise committee members to notify them by a time certain (preferably later on the day of approval) if they intend to file views since a request made by any member protects the right of all members to file views.

Section 15. Committee Reserve Fund: This section authorizes the Committee on House Oversight to include with its biennial, primary expense resolution for committees a "reserve fund" for unanticipated committee expenses. The actual allocation of any money from the reserve fund would be subject to approval by the House Oversight Committee. This is similar to a provision contained in the Senate's biennial committee funding resolution. Since it is sometimes difficult to accurately project total expenses for a two-year period given unexpected developments and demands on a committee over the course of a Congress, this reserve fund is designed to be used in such extraordinary circumstances without the need for a supplemental expense resolution. Committees should not expect that this reserve fund will be readily available for all committees to tap at any time. Instead, it is anticipated that it will be relatively limited in amount for use only in extraordinary, emergency or high priority circumstances, and that any proposals for its allocation will be carefully scrutinized and coordinated at the highest levels before it is put to a vote by the House Oversight Committee. Other committee requests beyond their initial, biennial budget authorization will still require a supplemental expense resolution to be approved by the House.

Section 16. Corrections Calendar Changes: This section would make two changes in the order of consideration of bills from the Corrections Calendar. (See section 1 above for an explanation of the Corrections Calendar and changes made in the postponement of certain votes on Corrections bills.) First, it would no longer be required that the Corrections Calendar be called immediately after the Pledge of Allegiance on a Corrections Day (the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month). It could be called at any time on a Corrections Day. Second, it would no longer be required that bills on the Corrections Calendar be called in the numerical order in which they appear on the Corrections Calendar. They could be called in any order, so long as they have been on the Calendar for at least three legislative days. The main purpose of these changes is to permit the Leadership, in working with committee chairmen, to have the maximum flexibility possible in scheduling both Corrections bills and Suspension bills on such days.

Section 17. Dynamic Estimation of Effects of Major Tax Legislation: This section would permit the House majority leader, after consultation with the minority leader, to designate certain legislation as "major tax legislation." It is anticipated that the designation would be in the form of a publicly-released letter from the majority leader to the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. The designation in turn would authorize the Committee on Ways and Means to include in its report on the legislation a dynamic estimate of changes in Federal revenues expected to result from enactment. The Joint Committee on Taxation shall only provide such an estimate to the Ways and Means Committee in response to a timely request from its chairman (after consultation with the ranking minority member). Such estimates shall be for informational purposes only. This means that in no way are they to be depended upon or looked to for purposes of enforcement or scorekeeping under the terms of the Congressional Budget Act. "Dynamic estimate" is defined as meaning a projection based in any part on assumptions concerning the probable effects of macroeconomic feedback resulting from the enactment of the legislation. The estimate shall include a statement identifying all such assumptions.

Section 18. Appropriations Process Changes: This section makes two changes regarding the consideration of appropriations bills. First, it would make clear that the Appropriations Committee could not report, nor could an amendment be considered by the House, that makes the availability of funds contingent upon the receipt or possession of information by the funding authority if such information is not required by existing law. This is designed to prohibit the consideration of so-called "made known" provisions and amendments which in the past have been used as a technical loophole to circumvent the prohibition on legislating in an appropriations measure. The second provision would make clear that, once the final lines of a bill have been read for amendment, and it is in order to consider so-called limitation amendments, other amendments could not be offered as a means of preempting the right of the majority leader or a designee to offer the privileged motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill to the House. This simply makes clear that the right granted to the majority leader to offer the motion to rise and report during the limitation amendment process has precedence over any motion to amend.

Section 19. Clarifying Definition of Income Tax Rate Increase: This section clarifies the definition of "income tax rate increases" for the purposes of clauses 5(c) and (d) of House Rule XXI which require a three-fifths vote on any amendment or bill containing such an increase, and prohibits the consideration of any amendment or bill containing a retroactive income tax rate increase, respectively. A "federal income tax rate increase" is any amendment to subsection (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of section 1 (the individual income tax rates), to subsection (b) of section 11 (the corporate income tax rates), or to subsection (b) of section 55 (the alternative minimum tax rates) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 which (1) imposes a new percentage as a rate of tax and (2) thereby increases the amount of tax imposed by any such section.

Thus, paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule XXI clause 5 would apply only to specific amendments to the explicitly stated income tax rate percentages of Internal Revenue Code sections 1(a), 1(b), 1(c), 1(d), 1(e), 11(b) and 55(b). The rules are not intended to apply to provisions in a bill, joint resolution, amendment, or conference report merely because those provisions increase revenues or effective tax rates. Rather, the rules are intended to be an impediment to attempts to increase the existing income tax rates. The rules would not apply, for example, to modifications to tax rate brackets (including those contained in the specified subsections), filing status, deductions, exclusions, exemptions, credits, or similar aspects of the Federal income tax system and mere extensions of an expiring or expired income tax provision. In addition, to be subject to the rule, the amendment to Internal Revenue Code section 1(a), 1(b), 1(c), 1(d), 1(e), 11(b), or 55(b) must increase the amount of tax imposed by the section. Accordingly, a modification to the income tax rate percentages in those sections that results in a reduction in the amount of tax imposed would not be subject to the rule.

Section 20. Unfunded Mandate Clarification: This section clarifies that the right to offer a motion to strike an unfunded mandate provision from a bill, unless precluded by special order of the House, applies to unfunded Federal intergovernmental mandates that exceed the threshold contained in section 424(a)(1) of the Budget Act. The clause being amended (clause 5(c) of rule XXIII) merely referenced the applicable section of the Budget Act and did not make clear that its reference is to intergovernmental mandates as opposed to private section mandates.

Section 21. Discharge Petition Clarification: This section makes clear the original intent of permitting discharge petitions on resolutions from the Rules Committee was for the purpose of a resolution making in order the consideration of a single measure that has been introduced for at least 30 legislative days (and not multiple measures), and that such a resolution may only make in order germane amendments to such a measure. Without this clarification, the intent of allowing discharge petitions on resolutions from the Rules Committee could completely distort the purposes of the discharge rule by making in order completely unrelated matters. Members should be fully aware when signing a discharge petition that it is being confined to the subject matter of the bill being made in order for consideration by the resolution they are being asked to discharge from the Rules Committee.

Sec. 22. Prohibiting the Distribution of Campaign Contributions in the Hall of the House: House Rule XXXII ("Of Admission to the Floor") would be amended by adding a new clause 5 prohibiting the knowing distribution of campaign contributions in the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto by any Member, officer, employee or other person having floor privileges. The "rooms leading thereto" are commonly understood under the rule as being the majority and minority cloakrooms and the Speaker's Lobby.

Section 23. Repeal of Obsolete Employment Practice Rule: House Rule LI, relating to House Employment Practices, is repealed as obsolete because it has been replaced by the provisions of the Congressional Accountability Act (Public Law 104-1). House Rule LII, the Gift Rule, is consequently redesignated as Rule LI.

Section 24. Technical Amendments: This section makes nine technical amendments to the Rules of the 104th Congress for purposes of the Rules of the 105th Congress, as follows:

(a) A recorded vote taken pursuant to clause 5(a) of rule I shall be considered a vote by the yeas and nays. This in no way changes the existing threshold for demanding a recorded vote, but simply avoids a possible second vote on the same question if someone should demand the Yeas and Nays.

(b) and (c) Two references to the "House Information Systems" are replaced by its redesignated name, "House Information Resources."

(d) This subsection clarifies the provisions for closing investigative hearings if it is asserted that any information to be disclosed may tend to defame, degrade or incriminate any person. Whereas a quorum for taking testimony (which may be as few as two of the members) is required to vote on closing an investigative hearing for such purposes, the current rule goes on to read that the hearing may only be kept open if a majority of members of the committee, a majority being present, determine that it would not tend to defame, degrade or incriminate any person. The proposed amendment strikes "a majority of the members of," leaving the subsection to read: "only if the committee, a majority being present, determines that such evidence or testimony will not tend to defame, degrade, or incriminate any person." In short, this would restore the concept of majority, rather than super-majority rule by requiring that a majority of those voting (rather than a majority of the total membership of the committee), a majority being present, are sufficient to keep the hearing open.

(e) This subsection clarifies that the layover period for reports on budget resolutions shall include days on which the House is in session (including any Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday), thereby conforming it to the language that applies to the layover period for other committee reports.

(f) This subsection corrects the spelling of the word "endorsed" in clause 4(a) of rule XXIII.

(g) This subsection would amend clause 6 of rule XXIII to ensure that certain rights of Members to offer amendments in the Committee of the Whole if they have been pre-printed in the Congressional Record would apply to unreported as well as reported bills.

(h) This subsection amends clause 4 of rule XLIII (Code of Official Conduct) in two ways: first, by changing the word "excepted" to "except," and secondly, by changing the reference to the "Gift Rule" from rule LII to rule LI (see section 22 above).

(i) This subsection would replace the term "by House" to "by the House" in clause 13 of rule XLIII (Code of Official Conduct)

Sec. 25. Select Committee on Ethics: This section would extend until January 21, 1997, the membership and authority of the Committee on Standard of Official Conduct of the 104th Congress as a select committee of the 105th Congress for the purpose of taking final action on its subcommittee report on the conduct of Representative Gingrich. Any vacancies would be filled by the majority or minority leaders concerned.

The provision is necessary since the Committee of the 104th Congress officially expired at noon on January 3rd, 1997, and thus has no authority in the new Congress to make any recommendations or report to the House on the pending case. The new select committee will be considered to have been created at noon on January 3rd to ensure continuity.

COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, January 6, 1997.

Hon. GERALD B.H. SOLOMON,
Chairman, Committee on Rules, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: I am writing to express my understanding of the proposed change to clause 5 (c) and (d) of Rule XXI of the Rules of the House, regarding the definition of income tax rate increase.

Specifically, subsections (c) and (d) of Rule XXI clause 5 are clarified by defining "Federal income tax rate increase." A "federal income tax rate increase" is any amendment to subsection (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of section 1 (the individual income tax rates), to subsection (b) of section 11 (the corporate income tax rates), or to subsection (b) of section 55 (the alternative minimum tax rates) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 which (1) imposes a new percentage as a rate of tax and (2) thereby increases the amount of tax imposed by any such section.

Thus, subsections (c) and (d) of Rule XXI clause 5 would apply only to specific amendments to the explicitly stated income tax rate percentages of Internal Revenue Code sections 1(a), 1(b), 1(c), 1(d), 1(e), 11(b) and 55(b). The rules are not intended to apply to provisions in a bill, joint resolution, amendment, or conference report merely because those provisions increase revenues or effective tax rates. Rather, the rules are intended to be an impediment to attempts to increase the existing income tax rates. The rules would not apply, for example, to modifications to tax rate brackets (including those contained in the specified subsections), filing status, deductions, exclusions, exemptions, credits, or similar aspects of the Federal income tax system and mere extensions of an expiring or expired income tax provision.

In addition, to be subject to the rule, the amendment to Internal Revenue Code section 1(a), 1(b), 1(c), 1(d), 1(e), 11(b), or 55(b) must increase the amount of tax imposed by the section. Accordingly, a modification to the income tax rate percentages in those sections that results in a reduction in the amount of tax imposed would not be subject to the rule.

These rules are designed as a barrier to attempts to increase the existing income tax rates. Had the House rules included subsections (c) and (d) since 1989, they would have applied to the creation of the 36% and 39.6% income tax rates and 26% and 28% alternative minimum tax rates in the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. They would also have applied to the proposed creation of a 36% income tax rate in H.R. 4210, as passed by the Congress in 1992 and vetoed by President Bush. Subsection (c) would have applied as well to the creation of the 31% income tax rate and 24% alternative minimum tax rate in the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990.

I would appreciate your confirmation of this understanding. Thank you again for your and your staff's ongoing assistance to the Committee on Ways and Means. With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

BILL ARCHER,
Chairman.

HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE

SOLOMON RELEASES COMPARATIVE LEGISLATIVE DATA FOR 103RD & 104TH CONGRESSES

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Rules Committee Chairman Gerald B. Solomon (R-NY) today released comparative legislative data for the 103rd and 104th Congresses that, in his words, "demonstrate that the new Republican Congress has been both more open and more deliberative than the Democrat-controlled 103rd Congress."

Solomon observed, "While we enacted fewer laws than the previous Congress, most objective observers agree that this has been the most productive Congress in at least a generation. Obviously, the productivity of a Congress cannot and should not be measured by the number of laws enacted but rather by their thrust and direction. The laws we enacted in the 104th Congress have set a dramatic new course for the government. Moreover, the data show that we spent more time considering legislation in the 104th Congress under a more open and deliberative process."

The data, compiled by the Rules Committee staff, show that the 104th Congress enacted 333 measures into law compared to 465 in the 103rd Congress. However, when non-substantive commemoratives enacted in the 103rd Congress (like "National Clown Week"), which were banned in the 104th Congress, are subtracted from total public laws, the number of substantive enactments is much closer—384 laws in the 103rd Congress compared to 333 in the 104th Congress.

The more open process in the 104th Congress is borne out in the data compiled by the Rules Committee staff. While the House passed 611 bills in the 104th Congress, using 4 hours of session per bill, in the 103rd Congress the House passed 757 bills with 2.5 hours of floor time per bill.

Recorded votes per bill passed were also up in the 104th Congress—with 2.2 votes per bill passed compared to 1.4 votes per bill passed in the 103rd Congress.

A further indication that the House was more deliberative in the 104th Congress is reflected in the percentage of unreported measures passed by the House. While 29% of the measures passed by the House in the 104th Congress had not been reported by a committee, 39% of the measures passed in the 103rd Congress were never reported.

Further enhancing House deliberations was the amendment process provided by special rules reported from the Rules Committee. Open or modified open rules for amendments in the 104th Congress comprised 57% of total rules compared with 46% open or modified open rules in the 103rd Congress.

According to Solomon, "The House was able to produce its impressive track record of legislative accomplishments in the historic 104th Congress more because of, rather than in spite of, the substantial streamlining and down-sizing in its structure, resources and operations at the beginning of the new Congress." The opening day House reforms in the 104th Congress resulted in the reduction of 3 committees and 32 subcommittees, a reduction of 684 committee staff (-34%), and a reduction in overall appropriations for the House in the two-year cycle of $122.9 million from the 103rd Congress.

Solomon concluded, "I think we have demonstrated that the Republicans have been able to legislate and govern with common sense while at the same time setting an example for the rest of the government that down-sizing and economizing on operations can enhance rather than hinder the ability to provide more effective and efficient government for the American taxpayer."

ADOPTING HOUSE RULES FOR A NEW CONGRESS: THE TURN OF THE CENTURY TURN FROM OPEN, RULES COMMITTEE PROPOSALS TO CLOSED, MAJORITY CAUCUS RECOMMENDATIONS

(By Don Wolfensberger)

Introduction: George Galloway, in his History of the United States House of Representatives, observes that, "the customary practice in post bellum days, when a new House met was to proceed under general parliamentary law, often for several days, with unlimited debate, until a satisfactory revision of former rules had been effected." (p. 48)

Galloway goes on to cite examples of such extended debate on the rules for a new Congress, for instance, that after the revision of the 1880 general rules (which included making the Rules Committee a permanent standing committee of the House): "Two days were consumed at the beginning of the 48th Congress (1883), 4 days at the 49th (1885), 6 days at the 51st (1889), 9 days at the 52d (1891), and 6 days at the opening of the 53rd Congress (1893)." (Id.)

And Galloway concludes this discussion as follows: On three of these occasions 2 months or more elapsed before the amended code was finally adopted, in striking contrast to the celerity with which the old rules have been rushed through in recent times. (Id.)

Prior to 1880, rules revisions were reported from the Select Committee on Rules (if one had been appointed for that Congress), and these proposed changes were debated under an open amendment process. Even after the Rules Committee became a standing committee in 1880, this practice apparently continued for well over a decade. However, neither the available histories of the House and the Rules Committee or the precedents pinpoint the exact Congress in which this practice was abandoned in favor of considering House Rules recommended by the majority party caucus under a closed amendment process.

The first hint we get of a change is in A History of the Committee on Rules, a 1983 Rules Committee print, in which it is noted that, "The rules of the House were not substantially altered between 1895 and 1910, when the rules were amended directly on the House floor to strip Speaker Cannon of his membership, chairmanship and appointment authority of the Rules Committee and the committee was enlarged from 5 to 10 members, elected by the House. (p. 81)

A few pages later, in discussing the Democrats' retaking of the House and pounding the final nail in the coffin of "Czar Speaker," by providing for the election of all committees by the House, the book notes that the rules resolution making that and other changes had been "agreed upon in the Caucus." (p. 99) And the footnote to that observation states the following: It was customary at this time for the majority party's candidate for the chairmanship of the Rules Committee to introduce changes in the House rules, agreed upon by the Caucus. (Id.)

But nowhere in any of the commentary of Galloway or the Rules Committee History covering the years between 1895 and 1911 is the origin of this custom identified. To better pin this down, a search was made of the House Journals between the 53rd Congress (1893-94) and the 60th Congress (1907-08). Below is a running account of the adoption of House Rules at the beginning of each of those Congresses.

The 53rd Congress (1893-95): On August 8, 1893, the House adopted a resolution authorizing the Speaker to appoint a Committee on Rules and the temporary adoption of House rules from the preceding Congress which were referred to the Rules Committee for recommendations for any further changes in the new Congress. On August 29, 1892, Representative Catchings (D-Miss.), the second ranking majority member on the Rules Committee (Speaker Crisp was the chairman), reported back a resolution making 14 recommended changes the rules of the previous Congress. Catchings offered a motion, by unanimous consent, to proceed to consider the rules resolution by paragraph for amendment, with 5 minutes of debate allowed for and against each amendment. He then moved the previous question on his resolution. Representative Thomas Brackett Reed (R-ME), the ranking Republican on the Rules Committee (and its former chairman and House Speaker from 1889-91), made the point of order that it was not in order to move the previous question on the resolution. The Speaker (Crisp) overruled the point of order saying the previous question was in order. Catchings nevertheless withdrew his order of business resolution and the House proceeded to debate the resolution containing the rules changes recommended by the Rules Committee.

On August 30th, Catchings propounded a unanimous consent request to close debate on the rules resolution at 2 p.m. that day and to then proceed to consider amendments to the resolution by paragraph under the five-minute rule. There was no objection, and the House proceeded to consider amendments on August 31, and September 1, 2, and 6. It is apparent from the Journal's summary of amendments that the entire body of House Rules was open to amendment, and not just the 14 changes recommended by the Rules Committee. On September 6, Rep. Burrows (R-MI), the second-ranking minority member of the 5-member Rules Committee, offered a final substitute to in effect adopt the Rules of the 51st Congress with one change. The substitute was rejected, 65 to 149, and the House subsequently adopted the rules package as amended by voice vote.

The 54th Congress (1895-97): On December 2, 1895, when Republicans had retake control of the House, the House adopted H. Res. 5, adopting the rules of the 51st Congress (the last Republican Congress) as the rules of the 54th Congress, "until otherwise ordered." On January 10, 1896, Rep. Henderson (R-IA), the second-ranking Republican on the Rules Committee, called-up the first of two reports (Nos. 29, 120) reported by the Rules Committee to amend House Rules. Henderson asked unanimous consent that, after consideration of the proposed amendments was completed for amendment, the House then proceeded to consider amendments to the rules, beginning with Rule, I. Numerous amendments were considered on January 10th and 11th. On January 23rd, the House took up the second of the Rules Committee reports (No. 120), considering of three additional amendments. It too was subject to numerous amendments, one of the final of which was an amendment by the minority to substitute the rules of the 53rd Congress (when the Democrats were last in control). It was rejected. Because the various amendments recommended by the Rules Committee was considered and disposed of individually, as with the January 10th report, there was no vote on final adoption.

55th Congress (1897-99): On March 15, 1897, Rep. Henderson (R-IA), the second-ranking Republican on the Rules Committee, called-up a resolution adopting the rules of the 54th Congress as the rules of the 55th Congress "until further notice." The resolution was debated but not opened to amendment. Rep. Henderson moved the previous question, at which point an attempt was made to offer an amendment on grounds that the previous question does not exist when the House is operating under general parliamentary law. The Speaker overruled the point of order saying the previous question does exist under general parliamentary law of the House. The previous question was then adopted, 182-154, and the resolution was subsequently adopted by voice vote. That is no indication of any subsequent Rules Committee action on reporting a further revision in the rules.

56th Congress (1899-1901): On December 4, 1899, Rep. John Dalzell (R-PA), the second-ranking Republican on the Rules Committee (with Speaker Reed's retirement, Rep. Henderson had become the new Speaker and chairman of the Rules Committee), called up a resolution adopting the rules of the 55th Congress as the rules of the 56th Congress. This time the resolution carried no phrases ("until otherwise ordered" or "until further notice") holding out the expectation of further recommendations from the Rules Committee. The resolution was debated without amendments being entertained, after which Rep. Dalzell moved the previous question. The previous question was adopted by voice vote, after which the resolution was adopted, 178 to 159.

57th Congress (1901-03): On December 2, 1901, Rep. Dalzell called up H. Res. 2, adopting the rules of the 56th Congress as the rules of the 57th Congress with four modifications: (1) carrying forward the special orders of 1900 regarding the consideration of pension, claims and private bills; (2) converting a Select Committee on the Census into a standing committee; (3) creating a Select Committee on Industrial Arts and Exhibitions; and (4) continuing a Select Committee on Documents. After debate on the resolution, Rep. Dalzell moved the previous question which was adopted, 180-143. Rep. Richardson (D-TN) then offered a motion to commit the resolution to the Committee on Rules when it was appointed. The motion was rejected, 143 to 186. A demand was then made to divide the question on the resolution and both parts were adopted by voice vote.

58th Congress (1903-05): On November 9, 1903, Rep. Dalzell, still the second ranking Republican on the Rules Committee (Rep. Joe Cannon had been elected Speaker and thus chairman of the Rules Committee) offered H. Res. 1, adopting the rules of the 57th Congress as the rules of the 58th Congress together with two modifications: (1) carrying forward the special orders of 1900 on the consideration of pension, claims and private bills; and (2) converting the Select Committee on Industrial Arts and Exhibitions into a standing committee. After debate, the previous question was ordered by voice vote and the resolution was adopted, 193 to 167.

59th Congress (1905-1907): On December 4, 1905, Rep. Dalzell called up H. Res. 8 adopting the rules of the 58th Congress as the rules of the 59th Congress with one modification, carrying forward the special orders of 1900 on the consideration of pension and claims bills. After debate, the previous question was ordered, 228 to 196, and the resolution was subsequently adopted by voice vote.

60th Congress (1907-1909): On December 2, 1907, Rep. Dalzell called up H. Res. 28, adopting the rules of the 59th Congress as the rules of the 60th Congress. After debate, the previous question was ordered, 199 to 164, after which the resolution was adopted, 198 to 160.

61st Congress (1909-1911): Notwithstanding Galloway's claim that no significant rules changes were adopted between 1895 and 1910, the facts indicate otherwise with respect to the opening day of the 61st Congress. The beginning of this Congress marked the opening round in the revolt against Speaker Cannon by Republican insurgents and the minority Democrats. On opening day of the 61st Congress, March 16, 1909, when the usual resolution adopting the rules of the previous Congress as the rules of the new Congress was offered, the Republican insurgents joined with the Democratic minority to defeat the previous question in order to offer their own substitute rules package offered by Minority Leader Champ Clark (D-MO). The Clark substitute would have limited the powers of the Speaker to appoint committees and also would have enlarged the Rules Committee. Clark immediately moved the previous question on his substitute. But Cannon, anticipating this action, had conspired with a junior Democrat, Rep. John Fitzgerald of New York, who protested being gagged and urged defeat of the previous question on the Clark substitute so that he could offer his own amendments to the rules. Fitzgerald prevailed by defeating the previous question, 180 to 203. He then offered his amendments that then provided for a new, unanimous consent calendar, strengthened the Calendar Wednesday rule, and permitted the motion to recommit to be offered by the opponents to a measure (previously the right to recommit was exercised by the bill's manager), and prohibited the Rules Committee from issuing a rule denying this right. The Fitzgerald substitute was adopted when 23 Democrats joined with him and the regular Republicans.

Conclusions: While it appears from the above study that the Rules Committee discontinued its role of reporting revisions in House Rules at the beginning of a Congress after the 54th Congress (1895-97), and the House thereafter began to simply adopt the rules of the new Congress on opening day under the hour-rule, with no amendments allowed, it was not until the 61st Congress that any serious effort was made to defeat the previous to provide for the consideration of substantial changes in the rules resolution offered by the majority. But even then, the effort was a bipartisan one, forged between the minority Democrats and the insurgent Republicans, and it was defeated by a further bipartisan compromise offered by a few minority Democrats and the regular Republicans.

It was not until 1911, when "King Caucus" emerged to replace "Czar Speaker," that the Caucus fully assumed the role of reporting significant rules changes on opening day. And the precedent had already been set with the previous question fight of 1909 to use the attempted defeat of that procedural motion to highlight the minority's rules alternative rules package.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, this is the 11th time I have been sworn in as a Member of Congress. To this day, I still get chills when I approach the Capitol or if I move onto the floor of the House. Every single day we go to work in a Chamber where America pushed the frontier and rebuilt the Nation, they put the GI bill through for college education, a place where we paid to land a man on the Moon. From the podium behind me Franklin Roosevelt spoke of a day which will live in infamy, and from this Chamber democracy has given ordinary men and women more rights and more dignity than this world has ever known.

So, Mr. Speaker, this is a special place. All of us are privileged to serve here. But with that privilege comes responsibility, a responsibility to hold this House and this Nation to the highest possible standards. We are not defined simply by the laws we pass, but by the example we set.

If we want an America where laws are respected, where the rights of the minority are protected, and where the voices of all are heard, we have got to have a House that respects the law, that protects the minority and allows those voices to be heard; because, Mr. Speaker, every time we look the other way when somebody breaks the rules, we just do not damage the integrity of this House, we send a message to every child in Michigan, in California, in Georgia, that lying pays, that cheating works, that wrongdoing goes unpunished. Sometimes saying we are sorry just is not enough.

We are here this afternoon to decide the rules of this House, but the rules have no meaning if they are ignored and betrayed. If we want an America that rewards virtue and punishes wrongdoing, we need to have a Congress that rewards virtue and punishes wrongdoing.

I am afraid we have taken a tremendous step backward here today. There is an ethical cloud hanging over this House that will only get darker in the days to come. We could have postponed today's vote for Speaker, but the majority voted against it. Soon this tragedy will move from the Halls of Congress to the court of public opinion. Sometime in the next few weeks, the nonpartisan outside counsel will present the facts to the American people in an open public hearing. Finally the American people will be able to decide for themselves who is right and who is wrong.

This case goes to the heart of our constitutional system. At issue is the ethical character of the man second in line to the Presidency. These are serious charges, and the Ethics Committee must be allowed adequate time to spell out the truth.

In recent days some in the Republican leadership have tried to force a rush to judgment, but today the outside counsel himself requested the committee be given additional time to consider this case. Subsequently we will be offering a motion today that gives the Ethics Committee adequate time to fully resolve this case. I urge my colleagues to support it.

We have heard a lot of talk about freedom and democracy here today, but sadly we moved away from those principles in the last Congress. Instead of open public hearings we saw closed-door meetings. Instead of free speech we saw closed rules that shut down debate. Instead of freedom of expression we saw one case after another when voices were shut down in this House. We even saw the Government shut down twice to force an opinion through.

But this rules package before us today makes the problem worse, not better. We cannot build a foundation of trust by giving House committees slush funds to conduct sham investigations, by rolling back minority rights, or by completely ignoring the other side. But that is what in many respects this rules package does. It is shameful and it is wrong. Let us turn good words into good deeds. Let us work together on something that really matters.

We all know that the current campaign finance system is completely undermining our democracy. We believe it is time to get money out of politics and return power to the people. That is why, Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote no on the previous question.

If the previous question is defeated, we will offer a Democratic reform package that strikes seven sections in the proposed Republican House rules package. It requires that sufficient time be provided for the Ethics Committee to complete its investigation of the Speaker's pending ethics violation and it requires the House to consider substantive campaign finance legislation within the next 100 days.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the RECORD the text of the amendment.

The motion to commit referred to is as follows:

MOTION TO COMMIT

Mr. _____ moves to commit the resolution H. Res. ____ to a select committee comprised of the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader with instructions to report back the same to the House forthwith with only the following amendments:

In section 25, after "standing Committee on Standards of Official Conduct in the One Hundred and Fourth Congress" insert the following "and related matters brought forth by the Investigative Subcommittee".

In the last sentence of section 25, strike "or at the expiration of January 21, 1997, whichever is earlier".

Again, Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote no on the previous question. Then I urge my colleagues to support the request of the outside counsel and support the motion to make sure the Ethics Committee is not railroaded, is not pressured, and has the time to spell out the truth.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. CARDIN, the distinguished ranking member of the subcommittee of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend, the gentleman from Michigan, for yielding me this time.

Mr. Speaker, I rise as the ranking member of the executive subcommittee that is charged with the investigation of the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. GINGRICH]. Our subcommittee has worked in a professional, bipartisan manner. We are proud of the product that we have brought forward to the full Ethics Committee and to this House. We want to make sure that the process continues in a professional, bipartisan manner.

On behalf of all four members of the committee, two Democrats and two Republicans, we are disappointed by one provision in the rules package that puts a limit on the remaining time in which we can work, which is unrealistic. The special counsel has told us that that limit could very much impact the manner in which we carry out our work and prevent us from continuing in a professional, bipartisan manner.

I want to stress the point: We come as two Democrats and two Republicans, in a bipartisan manner, and ask the Members to change one provision in the rules package.

I am very disappointed. A month ago the gentleman from Florida [Mr. GOSS], and myself met with the gentleman from Texas, [Mr. ARMEY] and the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT,] in an effort to avoid this day, when we are on the floor without a rule on which we are in agreement in carrying out the work of our committee. We recognized at that time that there may be a need for us to continue our work into the new Congress. We were assured that we would have bipartisan cooperation. Unfortunately, that broke down today. I regret that.

We understand that putting January 21 as the deadline for our subcommittee jeopardizes our work. Let me quote, if I might, from Mr. Cole, our special counsel, a person who is far more objective than, I would say, anyone else in this Chamber:

In analyzing the time necessary for a sanction hearing and a vote on the House floor, I have recommended a schedule that will allow this to be accomplished in a fair and orderly fashion. In doing that, however, it will be necessary for the vote on the House floor to occur after January 21, 1997. Each member of the subcommittee has carefully considered the recommended schedule and agrees it is the best course in which to proceed. This schedule has been communicated to leaderships of both parties and unanimously recommended by the subcommittee and the special counsel that it be adopted.

If we keep this time limit in, let me just explain some of the problems we are going to run into. We do not have adequate time to prepare for the public sanction hearing. In the last several days and weeks we have been totally consumed, because of what has happened out there, with partisan attacks by both Democrats and Republicans. We have tried to keep this on a bipartisan basis. Give us the time to complete it in a bipartisan fashion.

It forecloses certain options that the full committee may need to do. Now, let me tell you, we know more, the four of us, than any of the other Members of the House as to what is involved in this investigation. It may be necessary for us to call additional witnesses. The schedule makes it impossible for us even to consider that. It is wrong for the full House to deny the ethics committee those options. It is wrong for the full House to say that we cannot have adequate time to prepare our report so you know what you are doing when we vote.

I want to thank the Democratic leadership because they are going to give us a motion to commit that will give us a chance to return to a bipartisan understanding on bringing this matter to a successful conclusion. I will urge my colleagues to vote "yes" on that motion to commit. The only change, the only change is to remove that January 21 deadline so that we have adequate time in order to do our work in a bipartisan basis.

Let me just tell my colleagues one other thing: Some people say, why could we not get it done earlier, why have we not done things quicker. Special counsel has also referred to that in his report where he is very clear about the work of the four members of our subcommittee. We have worked every day on this issue. We have met with Members. We have talked among ourselves. And we have worked in what we think is the best interests of this House.

We think that we deserve the respect of this House to give us the time that we say that we need. This is not coming from the two Democrats, this is coming from the two Democrats and the two Republicans. For the life of me, I do not understand how this House can deny the ethics committee the time that it needs in order to complete this work. I urge my colleagues to support the motion to commit.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes and 30 seconds to the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Mrs. JOHNSON], distinguished chair of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, someone who has done yeoman work that we are all so proud of in this body.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the rules package, and I regret that we must discuss this on the floor of the House. But it is because the Ethics Committee has two responsibilities. One is to the completion of the work before it, and the other is to the Members of the House.

I would just like to comment on this issue of timetable. Between Christmas and New Year's the subcommittee members and the counsel and the full committee members spent many, many hours discussing this issue on the phone. We spent 3 days specifically negotiating a time schedule that then was issued under my name, the name of my ranking member and of our counsel. It was bipartisan, supported by Democrats and Republicans and the special counsel alike, and it was a good-faith effort.

At the time we were negotiating it, I wanted desperately to have the hearings before today's opening, and I felt it was possible. I also have great respect for the other members of the committee and particularly for the members of the subcommittee and yielded to their desire not to try to do it before the 9th. Our early discussions, since they involved also extending the membership on this committee of a number of Members who had announced they were not going to serve, focused on the date of January 14. We knew that was tight, but that was our focus as a result of my interest.

When I learned that the leadership was comfortable with the 21st, we all agreed on the 21st. I reluctantly, and some others reluctantly, but at that time we all said, this gives us ample time; and so we gave the House notice. Members made their plans, and we issued the schedule.

Now, there is concern at this time about two things, one is the ability and the right of the subcommittee to prepare itself for the hearings. I have talked at length with the special counsel, and that problem can be dealt with. We are going to be able to give the subcommittee and the special counsel time, the time they request before the hearings. It does leave us a little pressed in terms of writing the report.

During our discussions, it was never brought up that we might need 6 days to write the report. I regret that. I do understand that. This is not a matter of malice. This is a matter, this is the kind of thing that sometimes happens.

But it does give us some significant time to write that report, and in fact much of that report is already written.

I understand it has to be brought together, different umbrella language, and so on and so forth, but I believe the report can be issued. I commit to the Members that as soon as the hearings are complete, which I think will be at least a week before the vote, once those hearings are complete, I will commit to every Member of this body that they can call the ethics committee and we will provide the transcripts of the two counsels' full statement. They will have plenty of time to read and understand the basis on which the allegations were brought forward. That will mean that they will only need to read and understand the package of sanctions offered by the committee and that is a much smaller body of reading.

I believe because we will honor the 3-day layover that they will have the time they need and we will have the opportunity to vote knowingly after an orderly process by sticking to the additional timetable. I do appreciate the pressure this puts on the counsel and his staff in terms of writing the report. We discussed that even 2 days after Christmas. A lot of writing has been in progress, a lot of writing has been done. We will work together as we always have and, if we feel we face, at the end, an insurmountable barrier, we will try to deal with that, too. But in fairness to the Members of the House and the schedules they have laid and to our responsibility to conclude this matter, I urge support of the rules package today.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes and 30 seconds to the gentleman from Washington, [Mr. McDERMOTT], distinguished ranking member of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to offer an amendment, a motion to commit because I believe the committee must have an orderly process, one that is fair and allows sufficient time for both the Members and the American people to understand the importance of these proceedings. Special counsel, as you heard from my colleague from Maryland, has proposed to the subcommittee, which by unanimous vote has accepted and supported the counsel's recommendation, for a process that will allow the House and this process to go in an orderly and fair way.

I am sure that, if the chair of the committee were to bring this motion to the committee, there would be a majority of the committee that would support this proposed schedule because the counsel has been fair, evenhanded, and has done a very professional job and we respect his work.

Yet for some reason the Republican leadership seems bent on forcing this process to be concluded by inauguration day. What is proposed is that this will, this process will begin on the 13th, with hearings in the House in open session for the American public; how many days that takes, no one knows. And then there will be a couple of days or a day or however long to discuss what the sanctions should be. Then a report must be written, and it must lay on the desk for 3 days before we vote on the 20th.

That means from the 13th to the 20th, you have 8 days. If you are going to have hearings and people able to think, you are not going to have 3 days for it to lay on the desk so that the Members of this House can read and know what they are voting on.

I suspect there will be an effort to waive that rule when we come back here or some way to get around it so that people do not have the time to actually look at it.

Now, it is in my view very sad, it has been said, that what has been a very professional job is now being forced into a schedule which is designed for political damage control. Demanding that that vote occur on inauguration day, we are going to come in here at 9:00 in the morning, called to order. This issue will be laid before the House. We will have an hour's discussion or whatever. We will vote on it and go around the building and inaugurate the President. That is not an orderly, thoughtful process. People will arrive here on Monday and with no reading of this, it will have been 3 days, Saturday, Sunday, Monday; and they will be expected to vote on it out here in a sensible way. That is not orderly. It is not a good process.

Now, you can only guess why they wanted that. The House deserves better than this. After 2 years of an incredibly slow process, the House can take a few extra days to do the job right. I urge the Members to support this motion to commit this back and have an orderly process date set in it.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY], majority leader.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to address this issue not as a member of the committee, the ethics committee, not even as a Member who deigns to presume that he knows what is going on in the ethics committee with respect to this case, in fact, as a Member who has purposely kept himself as uninformed as is possible out of respect for the committee, its jurisdictional rights and its obligations for confidence, but as a Member that has said on this floor on several occasions and in public on several occasions, the committee must be respected for its professionalism, for its ability, and for its objectivity. We are lost if we cannot find a way to do that with the committee. We have no place to put our confidence in the search for justice and fair evaluation.

Indeed, the special counsel is a person whom I have acknowledged must be a person of ability, competence, and objectivity.

Now, then, when I learned on December 21 that the committee, the subcommittee, with the advice and the assistance of the special counsel, had come to a conclusion of the case and was willing to put a result before the Speaker, I concluded in my mind, they must have concluded their work. They must have heard all they needed to hear, had all the witnesses they needed to hear from, considered all the documents and the reports. Why would I conclude that they would have done anything less than the full and complete evaluation of the material needed to have come to a conclusion and put a bill of alleged violations before the Speaker?

I then later subsequently understood that the Speaker had accepted the conclusions. There must be technical language. I am sorry I cannot say what that is. But in any event, that there was some chance that the full committee might be able to operate and conclude their work even before this day. And then I was informed, and this is an important point, that one of the reasons it was impossible for the full committee to do that was that the ranking member, the gentleman from Washington [Mr. McDermott], was in Europe on vacation with his family and that he felt, and justly so, that those plans that he and his family made ought to be respected in the scheduling of time.

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ARMEY. I yield to the gentleman from Maryland.

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.

I just wanted to correct the record on that because the subcommittee was in constant contact with the ranking member and chairman since December 21 to deal with the schedule, and at no time was there any delay caused because of someone being out of town. Mr. Cole, in his public statement today, has reaffirmed the position that there has been absolutely no delay in this case and in fact every day our committee met on conference calls.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, forgive me, I did not mean for the gentleman to think that I am being accusatory. I am only going by what I read in the papers. Of course, we all realize that the newspapers are not always reliable. But I believe I read that the gentleman from Washington [Mr. McDermott] had been reported in the papers as saying, I do not want to interrupt my vacation.

I do not want to quarrel with the gentleman about that. I just want to say that, as I had that understanding, perhaps imperfectly so, I felt, yes, the Member who works and toils long and hard and finally has an opportunity to fulfill the obligation and the commitment and the opportunity they had to vacation with their family should have respect in the process. I will return to that point later.

Now, again, if the gentleman will let me complete my statement, I do not wish to quarrel about this. I wish to clarify a few points.

Then I understood that the committee, even long-distance phone calls and conference calls and so forth, came to some negotiations regarding a timetable that would require this part of the rules package that is before us today, the existence of a select committee that reinstates the life of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct as we have known it, with jurisdiction over this case as its continues into this Congress. This is what we have done.

I was sitting at home with my wife looking at different colors of green and finally trying to come to the conclusion of which drapes I would in fact perhaps get hung when my fax announced a message. The message I received over my fax as I too struggled to have some time, in conformity with the announced schedule of the House, to tend to my life, says the chairwoman and the ranking member of the committee, along with Special Counsel Cole, announced the following schedule.

They had come to a conclusion. These people that I believed to be able, competent, professional, objective, fair people, thorough in their proceedings, who had sat down and talked among themselves in what I assumed would be in full cognizance of what was required in time and effort to complete their work, announced a schedule. Came over my fax.

And then as I responded to that schedule and examined what would need be done now by the body as a whole and all the Members scattered all over the country dealing with their commitments, I said I must see about scheduling floor action, completing the work and scheduling floor action.

I had at least one phone call from a member of the committee in which it was suggested to me that perhaps we could do this by the 14th of January. The committee suggestion to me was perhaps by the 14th of January.

I was the one who had said the 14th of January would be disruptive to pre-existing, already undertaken travel plans of a large number of Members about which I knew, and would be inconvenient to them. Could the committee please go with the 21st instead of the 14th? When the committee said that we could do that, I assumed that a committee of professional people, with a special counsel capable and able of understanding what needs be done to complete their work, who was given—if the gentleman will let me complete my statement, I will complete. A person under those circumstances would say if these groups of professional people have said, yes, we agree to accept a week later than that which we proposed, what reason would I not have to conclude that they could do so?

Now, just last night, just last night, as we were preparing these rules, I was asked to consider a different date, after I had done what? I had announced the schedule to the Members of this Congress, Republican and Democrat alike, to all the staff of this Congress. And I had made specific commitments on my own word to two people in particular, in order to obtain their service on the committee through the agreed-upon times suggested to me by the committee itself, that they would not have to do this service beyond the 21st.

I have not set dates arbitrarily. I have no agenda here except an orderly, respectful addressing of the needs of all the Members of the House, within the context of what I believe to be the conclusion that any reasonable person would have made about the competent ability of professionals thus respected to have suggested properly and with some degree of full necessity and accuracy what they thought were their time needs.

So if the time that my colleagues requested and announced in their announcement is now not acceptable to them, I find a very difficult problem understanding then why I should then therefore continue to hold to my clinging belief that they are professional, competent, able people that can assess what their needs are and make a request of them.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Washington, [Mr. McDERMOTT] the distinguished ranking member of the committee.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, with all due respect to the majority leader, sometimes things change. We made that decision on the best information available to us. None of us, not a single person said they would not come back if it made sense, but the bipartisan subcommittee said it could not be done. So that is why we set the timetable we did.

Within the last 3 days, I received, in December, a letter from the Speaker's attorney saying, "We want an expedited hearing. We are ready to go. We want this thing to go just right now." And suddenly yesterday they call us and say they want us to delay this to begin on the 13th.

Now, what happened between December when they said they were ready to go and then suddenly they say, yesterday they call Mr. Cole and say, "We are not ready to go. Do not have any hearings until the 13th. We need time to prepare."

Now if the gentleman cannot respond to things changing, it seems to me he is terribly rigid in setting a date. In this place we find over and over again, we set a date, it may not work just the way we thought. I think that when we have the subcommittee come together, with the special counsel—if it was just Democrats begging for this, that would be one thing, but we are talking about two Republicans and two Democrats and the special counsel saying this is a reasonable schedule.

Now, for the gentleman not to respond to that in a positive way seems to me to suggest he has some other agenda. I do not know what it is, but, clearly, it is not in preserving the orderly process of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. BONIOR. I would ask the Speaker to let us know how much time is available to each side.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). The gentleman from Michigan [Mr. BONIOR] has 14 minutes remaining, the gentleman from New York Mr. [SOLOMON] has 5 minutes remaining, and the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. BONIOR] is recognized.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Ohio [Mr. SAWYER].

(Mr. SAWYER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I know that the goal that all of us share is to do justice, and over the last 8 months an extraordinary thing has happened. A bipartisan subcommittee of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct has come together and acted in a careful, deliberate and responsible way to come forward with a finding that produced two miracles: It was both unanimous and it operated within the confidentiality that meets the highest standards that this House could expect.

It took 8 months to do that; 8 months of careful work. Does the full committee and, if needed, the full House, require 8 months to do that? I do not believe so. Does it require 8 weeks to do that? I do not think so. But can that same measure, that same quality of work be done in 8 days, from the 13th to the 21st? I do not think so, and we should not plan on it.

I have seen the room that is the repository of the work of this subcommittee. It is filled with shelf after shelf of indexed, loose-leaf notebooks that represent the work, the documents and the testimony that they have poured over over those 8 months, and the packing crates, the dozens and dozens of packing crates, that represent even further work.

I have read the 22 pages of the statement of alleged violations. I have read through several hundred pages of draft discussion documents that represent the work that the committee reported on, and I have looked through the hundreds of pages of selected primary documents that serve as the underpinnings of those documents.

I have read not only the selected examples of violations and sanctions that the Ethics staff has prepared, but I have read the full CRS analysis of the summaries of violations deep into the last century and the way this Congress has handled them. Others not on the subcommittee but on the full committee may have done as much, but I can suggest to my colleagues that no one has done more, and I am not done.

But I have reached one clear conclusion in this matter, and that is that to do justice to the work of the subcommittee, we cannot be rushed. To do justice, even more importantly, to the respondent in this case, the man we just elected Speaker, we cannot be rushed. And most importantly of all, to do justice to this House demands not only a higher standard of ethical behavior but a higher standard of work in rendering that justice. It cannot be done in 8 days. It may not take 8 months, or it may not take 8 weeks, but it cannot be done in 8 days.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Texas, Mr. RON PAUL, my former classmate from 1978.

(Mr. PAUL asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAUL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to express my concern about some of the rule changes.

DRUG TESTING

We are now being asked to support rule changes that will require random drug testing of all members and staff. Drug usage in this country, both legal and illegal, is a major problem and deserves serious attention. However, the proposal to test randomly individuals as a method to cut down on drug usage is ill-advised and should not be done without serious thought.

The real issue here is not drugs, but rather the issues of privacy, due process, probable cause, and the fourth amendment. We are dealing with a constitutional issue of the utmost importance. It raises the question of whether or not we understand the overriding principle of the 4th amendment.

A broader, but related question is whether or not it's the Government's role to mold behavior any more than it's the Government's role to mold, regulate, tax, impede the voluntarism of economic contractual arrangements. No one advocates prior restraint to regulate journalistic expression even though great harm has come over the centuries from the promotion of authoritarian ideas. Likewise, we do not advocate the regulation of political expression and religious beliefs however bizarre and potentially harmful they may seem. And yet we casually assume that it's the role of government to regulate personal behavior to make one act more responsibly.

A large number of us do not call for the regulation or banning of guns because someone might use a gun in an illegal fashion. We argue that it's the criminal that needs regulated and refuse to call for diminishing the freedom of law-abiding citizens because some individual might commit a crime with a gun. Random drug testing is based on the same assumption made by anti-gun proponents. Unreasonable effort at identifying the occasional and improbable drug user should not replace respect to our privacy. Its not worth it.

While some are more interested in regulating economic transactions in order to make a "fairer" society, others are more anxious to regulate personal behavior to make a "good" society. But both cling to the failed notion that governments, politicians, and bureaucrats know that is best for everyone. If we casually allow our persons to be searched, why is it less important that our conversations, our papers and our telephones not be monitored as well. Vital information regarding drugs might be obtained in this manner. We who champion the cause of limited government ought not be promoters of the revolving eye of big brother.

If we embark on this course to check randomly all Congressional personnel for possible drug usage, it must be noted that the two most dangerous and destructive drugs in this country are alcohol and nicotine. To not include these in the efforts to do good, is inconsistent—to say the least.

I have one question. If we have so little respect for our own privacy, our own liberty, and our own innocence, how can we be expected to protect the liberties, the privacy and the innocence of our constituents for which we have just sworn an oath to do?

This legislation is well motivated, as is all economic welfare legislation. The good intentions in solving social problems—when violence is absent—perversely uses government power, which inevitably hurts innocent people while rarely doing anything to prevent the anticipated destructive behavior of a few.

The only answer to solving problems like this is to encourage purely voluntary testing programs whereby each individual and member makes the information available to those who are worried about issues like this.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GEKAS].

(Mr. GEKAS asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time, and I ask that the RECORD reflect my support of the rules and particularly in its maintaining its prohibition of proxy voting.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3½ minutes to the distinguished gentleman from California [Ms. PELOSI].

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time. I rise as a member of the special investigative committee of the Ethics Subcommittee on this unfortunate case that we are looking into, and I rise in support of the motion to recommit.

There are many areas where I might have some disagreement with the rules package, but I am very pleased that the Democratic leadership has given us an opportunity to present the motion to recommit around the timetable.

With all respect in the world for our colleagues, and that means every single colleague in this House of Representatives, I believe that we need to heed the request of the special counsel for an additional amount of time for a few reasons.

First of all, and I say this without questioning the motivation of anyone on either side of the aisle about why the rules are in the package the way they are, the simple fact is that the special counsel, and by unanimous vote of the subcommittee, two Democrats and two Republicans, supporting the timetable that the special counsel has put forth, are making this request. And I believe that the burden is on those who would deny the special counsel that extended time.

Why do we need more time? Several things have happened that have not been addressed here yet, or forgive me if I have not heard them. I would like to associate myself with those remarks.

First of all, one of the members of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct has decided to leave the committee, so it required the appointment of a new committee member who has to become familiarized with the facts in the case, because this is a facts-driven, facts-based case.

And without going into any of the material aspects of it or any of the substance of this case, but only to process and only to time, I thought I would never see the day when the chair of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct would come to the floor and say that she would turn down the request of the special counsel to the committee for a couple more weeks to complete the work of the committee. I say that very regrettably.

On our subcommittee, chaired by the gentleman from Florida, Mr. PORTER GOSS, and with two Democrats and two Republicans, we have worked in a very bipartisan fashion all along and continue to in supporting the request of the special counsel.

I do not and never did think it was appropriate to have a vote on this important matter on Inauguration Day. Do my colleagues think that vote is going to take place without any debate? That would not be right.

So I say to my colleagues in the House of Representatives, and I say this with the highest regard for the distinguished majority leader, not impugning any of his motives in this or anyone else on either side of the aisle, whatever we think about the resolution of the case, I think we must agree that if the special counsel says he needs a couple more weeks, we must give him those weeks unless we can prove why that should not happen. The burden of proof is with those who would vote against the special counsel.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to make another point as to why more time is necessary. Because of a flurry of accusations and representations about the confidential work of the subcommittee that came out, it required us to go down another tangent to deal with that, and it necessitated a statement by the special counsel that the reports that were floating out there were inaccurate.

So in 1 week the special counsel has had to deem those rumors inaccurate and come out with his own statement asking for more time, in which he says each member of the subcommittee has carefully considered this recommended schedule and agrees it is the best course on which to proceed.

I urge my colleagues to vote for the motion to commit.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MOAKLEY], the distinguished ranking member of the Rules Committee.

(Mr. MOAKLEY asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks and include extraneous material.)

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the distinguished leader for the time.

Mr. Speaker, I had hoped to speak today about the Republican rules package as it pertains to the rules of the House. But unfortunately the rules package has been changed very dramatically and now addresses the issue of the ethics investigation of the Speaker.

I believe, Mr. Speaker, that it helps no one, neither Democrats nor Republicans, for unresolved investigations to drag on and on. But I also believe that we do have a responsibility to all the people who sent us here to make sure that absolutely every Member of Congress, no matter how powerful, abides by the rules of this House and that the House rules are applied fairly and consistently to every one of us.

Mr. Speaker, I have here a letter from the nonpartisan independent counsel for the Ethics Committee in which he and the entire subcommittee ask for more time, ask for more time, to complete their investigation. But the rules package prevents them from having that time and in doing so, Mr. Speaker, further compromises the honor of this institution.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to oppose this rules package and to support the motion to commit. We must give the ethics members and the independent counsel enough time to finish the job that they started.

The SPEAKER pro tempore [Mr. LAHOOD]. The gentleman from Michigan [Mr. BONIOR] has 6½ minutes remaining, and the gentleman from New York [Mr. SOLOMON] has 5 minutes remaining.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1¾ minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Texas [Mr. DOGGETT].

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, today our Republican colleagues have told us and told America that NEWT GINGRICH represents the most ethical person that they could find to lead this House of Representatives, and now by this rules resolution they also tell America how little confidence they have in their judgment.

Once again the Republican leadership, through this rules package, is trying to pervert the ethics process, to afford special treatment to Speaker GINGRICH that he does not deserve. He once said on the floor of this House that the Speaker should be held to a higher standard of ethical conduct. Today we move in the opposite direction with this rules package, because he is going to be assured a lesser standard of conduct that would not be available to any ordinary American citizen anywhere in this country.

What is happening? The investigative subcommittee, Republicans and Democrats alike, and the special counsel, who was finally appointed after month upon month of delay, come forward and say, "We can't do our job fairly and thoroughly if we are rushed into doing all this before January 21. Please give us the time to do our job fairly."

And the Republican leadership, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY] standing right here, says no, we are not going to give you the time to do your job the way the American people would want that job done and the way any American prosecutor would want to have the opportunity to do that job.

I would say this rules package, just like the misconduct of Speaker GINGRICH itself, is a discredit, a dishonor, and a disgrace to this House and it should be rejected.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. EHLERS].

(Mr. EHLERS asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EHLERS. I thank the chairman for yielding me this time.

Mr. Speaker, I simply want to state that my comments are in connection with section 9 of the resolution dealing with the proposal that each committee shall, to the maximum extent feasible, make its publications available in an electronic form. I strongly support this.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to indicate my strong support for section 9 of the resolution, which adds the following sub-paragraph at the end of clause 2(e) of rule XI, as follows:

(4) Each Committee shall, to the maximum extent feasible, make its publications available in electronic form.

I strongly support this addition to the rules, but also want to clarify how I interpret this.

I am committed to making all House documents available over the Internet as rapidly as possible. There are still many technical problems involved, as well as political issues to be dealt with. However, I believe that this statement is an excellent guiding principle, and I believe this proposed rule change should be interpreted as a means of achieving that objective.

In particular, I believe it absolutely essential that every document available in hard copy also be made available on the Internet at the same time or earlier than the hard copy is available. The Congress owes the public at least that much and preferably more.

I furthermore hope that, through the years, all House committees will develop the standard practice of making many documents available on the Internet which are currently not available, and that committees will continue to make progress in that direction.

From my activities in the computerization of the House, and in my service as a member of the Committee on House Oversight, I will seek to achieve these objectives, while recognizing the authority and responsibilities that each committee chairman has in dealing with business before his or her committee.

Thank you for the opportunity to make these comments. Once again, I wish to indicate my strong support for this proposed rule change. I only wish it went further.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER], the ranking minority member of the Resources Committee.

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time, and I would just encourage my colleagues to vote against the previous question so that we would have an opportunity in the rules of this House to have a deadline set on the consideration of campaign finance reform by the House of Representatives.

Those who are new to the House of Representatives will soon see that usually the party in power deals with campaign finance reform through delay and dilatory tactics until we can get it at such a time that we pass it to the Senate in the last moments of the first session, and then it falls prey to a filibuster in the Senate, and then at some point the leader in the Senate will announce that the Senate must get on with the important business of the Nation, and campaign finance reform will have to be withdrawn from the calendar. That is why we do not get campaign finance reform.

Unfortunately, in this session of the Congress, the 100th legislative day falls sometime late in September. If we deal with campaign finance reform late in September, there will be no finance reform and the argument will be made that it certainly cannot take effect in the next campaign, it will have to be 2 years later. So we are talking about 4 years from now to have campaign finance reform.

It is too important to the people of this country. The system we have now is a cesspool. It has got to be corrected. It permeates every decision made in this body, it permeates every decision made in the executive branch, and it permeates every decision made in the Senate, and that has got to stop. It dictates what we bring up, what we do not bring up, amendments that are offered and amendments that are not offered. That has got to stop, and we have got to return the business of this country back to the people of this country.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. SKAGGS], a member of the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. SKAGGS. I thank the gentleman for yielding me the time.

Mr. Speaker, we should be concerned here today, as well, with the first amendment's guarantee of the rights of all Americans to petition their government. We ought to welcome their participation in our own committee work.

But what are we doing in these rules? We are creating a new and absurd barrier to public participation in House hearings by saying that any non-governmental witness testifying in committee will have to file, as a precondition, a full report of all contracts, subcontracts, grants, subgrants received by that individual, his organization, or anyone he is representing.

What in the world are we trying to do here? I think erect a barrier a la the old Istook amendment to discourage and intimidate citizens from around the country in coming to talk to us about the public's business.

What will this mean? What unworkable prospect can we look forward to under this crazy proposal? Well, the head of the Farm Bureau, wanting to testify about agricultural policy, will have to disclose every Federal agricultural aid, grant, or contract received by every member of the Farm Bureau. That is nuts.

The chairman of the board of regents of the University of New York, if he wishes to testify before a committee of this House, will have to file as a precondition of that testimony a full report of every contract, subcontract, grant, and subgrant received by any member of the faculty at any campus at any institution run by the regents of the State of New York.

Either this provision will be observed largely in the breach, or only selectively (preferentially?) applied in which case we should reject it. Or, it will actually be uniformly enforced to create a mountain of paper and a real impediment to public participation, in which case we should reject it even more emphatically.

What are we inflicting on ourselves in this provision of this rules package? It is yet another reason, along with the many others that have been suggested, why it should be rejected.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself 20 seconds just to respond.

The gentleman is absolutely wrong. Farmers would not have to report any of their subsidies.

Let me tell you who is interested in this: the Heritage Foundation, the National Taxpayers Union, the Wall Street Journal; and, more than that, the taxpayers of my district want to know who is coming here testifying for more handouts, and they want to know where that money is coming from. They want them to be accountable.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Mrs. JOHNSON], the distinguished chairwoman of the Ethics Committee.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. I thank the chairman for yielding me the time.

Mr. Speaker, I have enormous respect for the members of the Ethics Committee who served on the subcommittee. I have great respect for the other members of the Ethics Committee that have worked hard together over 2 years, and I regret as deeply as you do that we are discussing this matter on the floor of the House. It is unfortunate that it came to us 10 minutes before the Republicans were convening a very important conference that went on very late. By the time I finished discussing the matter with my leadership, working on compliance, frankly, everyone was gone.

I have studied carefully your proposal. I talked with Mr. Cole about it extensively this morning. Your proposal is no different than the old timetable in terms of the amount of time for public hearing and the amount of time for committee deliberation. It is distinctly different in the amount of time for preparation, and I felt that was a very important point, that the subcommittee has some request for participating in presentation.

We can give you 4½ of the 5 days you are requesting for preparation if we meet this evening instead of tomorrow morning, so tomorrow morning will be a better work space, either for Mr. Cole, who needs a day to work by himself, or for everyone. We can accommodate 4½ of the 5 days.

What we cannot accommodate is the report writing time. He had asked 2 days to complete the report. We can accommodate that. We cannot accommodate the 4 additional days that he had asked for members to review. Now, that means we have to work with him and be part of that review. We know what a lot of the material is about.

As to the concern of the gentlewoman from California [Ms. PELOSI] about voting on Inauguration Day, this was slipped to the next day. That was originally the plan, but it has been moved, and members will stay over.

But we simply, when I look at what we can accommodate, we can truly accommodate everything important because remember, your proposal only asked till the 25th, not the 21st, so we only had a 4-day problem. We can slip 1 day. That brings it down to 3 days and so on and so forth. This is a manageable problem.

The time for hearings and committee deliberations will be identical. Even though I am going to oppose your motion to commit, I am absolutely ready to honor the concerns that lay behind your proposal, and I regret that we were unable to work it out beforehand.

But my leadership felt, with, I think, some good reason, that they had made a commitment to the members that they trusted our timetable, which was also supported by all the members and Mr. Cole, and it is just unfortunate but not irreconcilable, not irreparable and does not need to interfere with the quality either of our deliberations or our work.

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. I yield to the gentleman from Maryland.

Mr. CARDIN. I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Let me just point out one thing. Although we requested about 30 days ago what the transition rule would look like, we got our first draft of it yesterday morning. So we just got the transition rule yesterday morning.

The second point I would point out is that Mr. Cole and the subcommittee, they are very familiar with the voluminous documents. We do not have enough time to get a quality report to the House under this time schedule.

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. The transition rule could not be worked out until we were done, and so we are here. I hope we will work well together to complete the work on this important case.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. TAYLOR].

(Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, in the very brief time I have, I regret that this package of rule changes has come down to debate on just one of those changes. Overall it is a pretty good rules change, but there is one that is grossly inadequate.

As we meet right now on the floor of the House of Representatives, the Transportation Committee, of which I am a member, is meeting in the Rayburn Building. I cannot be in two places at once. We should have a House rule that prohibits the committees meeting while the House is in session. Instead, you are offering a rules change that would remove the last prohibition against the committees meeting while the House is in session. That is a gross mistake. And because we have a mistake, I will vote against your package.

Mr. Speaker, I would hope that the gentleman from New York [Mr. SOLOMON] would be good enough to allow the Members to vote on some of these changes individually, because overall it is a good package and I would like to help pass your package. But I cannot let the terrible wrong of one change make up for some of the good of the others.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield 45 seconds to the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MEEHAN].

Mr. MEEHAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the minority rules package, specifically the rule requiring prompt House action on campaign finance reform. As my colleagues know, we have heard a lot around here about the 1996 campaign and how it proves once and for all that our electoral system is out of control. But it is only the minority package, the Democratic rules package, that requires the House to deal with campaign finance reform.

Today make no mistake about it. The minority plan being offered by the Democrats would require this House to act on campaign finance reform because as we get down the road here there are going to be efforts to get around this one way or the other like that we had in the last session.

We have a chance right now to set the record straight and debate campaign finance reform and require it. However, the majority has offered a rules package that does not make that requirement.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). The gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MOAKLEY] is recognized for 15 seconds.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I urge a "no" vote on the previous question, and I include for the RECORD the amendment I would offer if the previous question is defeated, as follows:

DEMOCRATIC REFORM PACKAGE TO BE OFFERED IF THE PREVIOUS QUESTION IS DEFEATED

AMENDMENT TO BE OFFERED TO H. RES. —

(1) In section 8(a)(2), strike the proposed new subparagraph (2) [providing that investigative and oversight reports will be considered as read under certain circumstances] and redesignate accordingly,

(2) Strike section 10 [placing information burdens on certain public witnesses],

(3) Strike section 12 [making exceptions to the five-minute rule in hearings],

(4) Strike section 14 [reducing the time for Members to file supplemental, minority, or additional views]

(5) Strike section 15 [creating a slush fund for committees]

(6) Strike section 17 [permitting dynamic estimates in certain instances]

(7) Strike section 18 [making changes in the appropriations process]

(8) in the last sentence of section 25, strike “, or at the expiration of January 21, 1997, whichever is earlier”.

(9) At the end of the resolution, add the following new section:

“SECTION ____ SUBSTANTIVE CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM.

(a) The Committee on House Oversight is directed to report to the House not later than April 7, 1997, a bill to provide for substantive campaign finance reform.

(b) Not later than ten calendar days after the Committee on House Oversight has reported a bill pursuant to subparagraph (a), the Committee on Rules shall report a resolution providing for the consideration of such bill in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union under an open amendment process. If the Committee on House Oversight has not reported a bill as required by the date specified in subparagraph (a), the Committee on Rules shall report not later than ten calendar days after such date a resolution providing for consideration in the Committee of the Whole of the first bill introduced in the 105th Congress providing for substantive campaign finance reform under an open amendment process.

(c) If the Committee on Rules has not reported a resolution pursuant to subparagraph (b) by the date specified, it shall be in order for any Member, as a matter of highest privilege, on any day thereafter, to move that the House resolve into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the first bill introduced in the 105th Congress providing for substantive campaign finance reform, the bill shall be subject to two hours of general debate to be equally divided between the proponents and opponents of the bill, and shall then be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule.”.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I yield the remainder of the time, 1 minute and 45 seconds, to the gentleman from Claremont, CA [Mr. DREIER], the vice chairman of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend from Glens Falls, and with that I yield briefly to my friend, the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. HOBSON].

Mr. HOBSON. Mr. Speaker, I had planned to speak longer, but I do not have time. But the only thing I would like to point out is I oppose this because there is not a date certain for ending this committee. We had an agreement that it would be in writing on the 21st. This merely just takes out the 21st date and leaves an open end so this committee can go on forever and ever, and therefore I oppose this motion.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend for his contribution and, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this rules package and strong support in passage of the previous question.

This is a very thoughtful package that builds on what we did in the beginning of the 104th Congress. My colleague from Pennsylvania, Mr. GEKAS, stood up and praised the fact that we did away with proxy voting. He appreciated the fact that we reaffirmed our commitment, the elimination of proxy voting, so Members would show up for work. We also have had Congress comply with laws imposed on every other American. These are the kinds of commonsense reforms that the American people want us to have.

Now my colleagues on the other side of the aisle are trying with what they would offer if they were to defeat the previous question, they want to eliminate disclosure. They do not want witnesses to provide information to committees when they come forward to testify. If we defeat the previous question, they would be able to make that in order and it would be wrong if they were to proceed with that.

With that I would say also that I am very pleased with another item in this package, Mr. Speaker, and that is the provision which calls for dynamic scoring. Today I introduced H.R. 14 with my colleagues the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. MORAN], the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. ENGLISH], and the gentleman from Texas [Mr. HALL], a bipartisan package to take the top rate on capital gains from 28 percent down to 14 percent to encourage economic growth. This is a very important package which will allow us to move ahead with that, and with that I urge a “yes” vote on the previous question.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, tucked away in the package of rules changes being proposed by the Republican majority is a reduction in the time permitted for the minority to file its views on legislation reported by a committee. The change would reduce the number of days for filing these views from 3 days to 2 days.

I find it ironic indeed that during the 40 years of control by the Democratic Party, we never considered limiting this fundamental right of the minority to file views on legislation. Yet after just 2 years in control of the House, the Republicans now have found the granting of 3 whole days to the minority to file its views as somehow being too onerous.

What is the motivation of this change? Was there some important business we failed to complete in the 104th Congress because of the 3 day filing period? Of course not. Certainly there appears to be no rush to pass legislation in this Congress. If that were the case we would be in session for more than the proposed 10 days over the next 2 months.

The reason seems pretty obvious. The majority wants to make it harder for Members to hear the arguments being made by the minority. They know that the logistics of drafting dissenting views and circulating them for signatures takes time, and if they can limit the time, they hope they can limit the debate.

It is truly shameful that a party which served in the minority for 40 years would be so quick to trample on one of the most important minority rights—namely, the right to express your views.

Mr. GOSS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman, the distinguished chairman of our Rules Committee Mr. SOLOMON, for all his diligent work on behalf of the rules of this House. I wish all of my colleagues a happy new year and look forward to working with all of you for a productive session.

As Members know, this time 2 years ago the new Republican majority brought forward a bold and comprehensive package of rules changes geared toward creating a more open, more responsive and more effective House. With those landmark changes we began a new era of management of this institution—one that fostered greater deliberation and public accountability. Today we bring forth a second installment, by design more moderate in scope and targeted toward refining the major improvements we made in 1995.

I was proud to have assisted in crafting this package, working with our chairman and my colleague DAVID DREIER in holding unprecedented public hearings to solicit suggestions from our colleagues and outside witnesses. Those four hearings—held in the late summer and early fall—greatly assisted our efforts to design this targeted package of rules changes. It is my hope that this exercise becomes standard procedure. Mr. SOLOMON has already described the details of this package, which all Members by now have had the opportunity to scrutinize and review. I would just like to point out three specific changes that I think are particularly important. The first is the incorporation of dynamic scoring—in effect providing official recognition of what many of us have known for some time: that legislation does affect the way people act. It's about time we became more accurate and sophisticated in our budget scoring efforts and began attempting to remove some of the institutional bias towards profligate spending.

Second, I am pleased that we were able to provide for the establishment of a suitable drug testing policy for this House. This is a matter on which the private sector and even the executive branch have moved while this House has lagged behind. It's time we brought ourselves into line with the times and this rules package paves the way for that to happen. Finally, we are continuing our important efforts to modernize Congress and open the legislative process to the sunshine of public scrutiny by asking our committees, to the maximum extent feasible, to put their publications on the Internet. We are all committed to expanding public access to and understanding of the workings of this Congress—and clearly opening up the committee process is integral to that effort. One last note on a topic that has received considerable attention recently—this rules package does temporarily reconstitute the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct from the previous Congress, to allow it to complete its pending business.

All in all, Mr. Speaker, I think this is a practical and workable package of rules changes, one that builds on the enormous success of the rules rewrite we conducted in 1995—making technical adjustments where the past 2 years' experiences have suggested modifications are needed, and taking additional steps to enhance the openness, deliberation, and accountability of this body.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank Chairman Solomon for allowing me the time to express my support for the provision in the 105th Congress House Rules Package which requires that the Speaker of the House, in consultation with the minority leader, develop a system for drug testing the Members, staff and officers of the House of Representatives. I appreciate Chairman Solomon's commitment to ensuring that this provision is a part of the package.

In the past several Congresses, I have introduced a bill that would require Members of Congress to be mandatorily drug tested. Since 1989, I have followed this practice myself, by paying out of my own pocket to have both my staff and myself randomly drug tested. However, I have continued to work hard to see that mandatory drug testing be implemented in the entire House of Representatives.

I believe that Members of Congress should be mandatorily drug tested, just as our constituents working in federal agencies and private industry are tested. We should not hold ourselves to a different standard than those we represent. As Members of Congress, we have an obligation to not only set policy, but to set an example for those we represent, and show them that we are held accountable for our actions, just as they are asked to be accountable in their jobs.

Furthermore, considering the recent rise of drug use among teens in this country, we must send a message to young people that drug abuse is dangerous and wrong, by taking action to institute mandatory drug testing for Members of Congress.

I am greatly encouraged by this language in the House Rules Package for the 105th Congress. With this provision, we have the opportunity to institute a tough policy on drug testing for Members and staff in the House of Representatives. I urge my colleagues to support this House Rules Package, which I know the chairman himself and the staff of the House Rules Committee has put a lot of work into.

I appreciate Chairman Solomon's willingness to work with me personally on an issue I feel strongly about, especially for the language specifying that the system of drug testing may provide for testing of any Member, officer, or employee of the House.

I would especially like to recommend that the drug testing system developed for the House contain a provision that Members of the House of Representatives, in particular, be required to submit to mandatory, random drug tests. Although the traditional method of drug testing is urinalysis, I would like to see the final regulations leave the options open so that Members may have the choice of other methods of testing in addition to urinalysis.

Again, I thank the chairman for the time and commend him for his long-standing championship of drug testing so that we may fight the war against drugs and make the Congress more accountable to those we represent.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. MOAKLEY. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 221, nays 202, not voting 10, as follows:

Committee on Government Reform and Oversight: Bernard Sanders of Vermont.

Mr. FAZIO of California (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid upon the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would like to enunciate an essential rule of decorum.

It is an essential rule of decorum in debate that Members should refrain from references in debate to the conduct of other Members where such conduct is not the question actually pending before the House by way of a report from the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct or by way of any question of the privileges of the House. The principle is documented on pages 168 and 226 of the House Rules and Manual and reflects the consistent rulings of the Chair in prior Congresses and applies to one-minutes and special-order speeches.

Neither the filing of a complaint before the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, nor the conduct of investigations in prior Congresses, nor the publication in another forum of charges that are personally critical of another Member, justify references to such charges on the floor of the House. This includes references to the motivations of Members who file complaints and to Members of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Clause 1 of rule XIV is a prohibition against engaging in personality in debate. It derives from article I, section 5 of the Constitution, which authorizes each House to make its own rules and to punish its Members for disorderly behavior and has been part of the rules of the House in some relevant form since 1789. This rule supersedes any claim of a Member to be free from questioning in any other place.

On January 27, 1909, the House adopted a report that stated the following, which is recorded in Cannon's Precedents, volume 8, at section 2497:

"It is * * * the duty of the House to require its Members in speech or debate to preserve that proper restraint which will permit the House to conduct its business in an orderly manner and without unnecessarily and unduly exciting animosity among its Members."

This report was in response to improper references in debate to the President, but clearly reiterated a principle that all occupants of the Chair in prior Congresses, both Republican and Democratic, have held to be equally applicable to Members' remarks in debate toward each other.

The Chair asks and expects the cooperation of all Members in maintaining a level of decorum that properly dignifies the proceedings of the House and respects proper rulings of the Chair.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his inquiry.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Is it the Speaker's contention that he is stating what has been the rules of the House for many years?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The purpose of reading this is that we have adopted the rules, and this follows the precedents that have been set previously by previous Congresses, both Democrat and Republican, and the Chair wanted to reiterate it for all Members, particularly new Members.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, further inquiry. Does it require a Member to rise on the floor to ask for the enforcement of the rule, or is that at the discretion of the Speaker or his designee?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Either the Chair or a Member may initiate points of order.

Mr. FAZIO of California. So if it is not the position of a Member who perhaps hears a rule being violated and brings it to the Speaker's attention, the Speaker would be in a position to enforce it from the Chair. Would the Speaker therefore be required to do it under all circumstances and show no discretion?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair normally uses its initiative to enforce the rule with respect to references to the President and Members of the Senate.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Members of the House, I infer, would need to have the rule applied to them by an objection arising from among the membership?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. That has generally been the practice of the Chair.

Mr. FAZIO of California. I appreciate that.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Not invariably.

ADJOURNMENT TO THURSDAY,
JANUARY 9, 1997

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at noon on Thursday, January 9, 1997.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

AUTHORIZING SPEAKER AND MINORITY LEADER TO ACCEPT RESIGNATIONS AND TO MAKE APPOINTMENTS AUTHORIZED BY LAW OR BY THE HOUSE NOT WITHSTANDING ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding any adjournment of the House until Tuesday, February 4, 1997, the Speaker and the Minority Leader be authorized to accept resignations and to make appointments authorized by law or by the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

DISPENSING WITH CALENDAR WEDNESDAY BUSINESS ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1997

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that business in order under the Calendar Wednesday Rule be dispensed with on Wednesday, February 5, 1997.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ON PROCEDURES FOR THE 105TH CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Policies of the Chair, January 7, 1997:

The Chair customarily takes this occasion on the opening day of a Congress to announce his policies with respect to particular aspects of the legislative process. The Chair will insert in the RECORD announcements by the Speaker concerning, first, privileges of the floor; second, the introduction of bills and resolutions; third, unanimous consent requests for the consideration of bills and resolutions; fourth, recognition for 1-minute speeches, morning hour debate and special orders; fifth, decorum in debate; sixth, the conduct of votes by electronic device and, seventh, the distribution of written material on the House floor.

These announcements where appropriate will reiterate the origins of the stated policies. The Speaker intends to continue in the 105th Congress the policies reflected in these statements. The policy announced in the 102d Congress with respect to judicial concepts related to clause 5(b) of rule XXI, tax and tariff measures, will continue to govern but need not be reiterated as it is adequately documented as precedent in the House Rules and Manual.

The announcements referred to follow:

1. PRIVILEGES OF THE FLOOR

The Speaker's instructions to the former Doorkeeper and the Sergeant-at-arms announced on January 25, 1983, and on January 21, 1986, regarding floor privileges of staff will apply during the 105th Congress. The Speaker's policy announced on August 1, 1996, regarding floor privileges of former Members will also apply during the 105th Congress.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, JANUARY 25, 1983

The SPEAKER. Rule XXXII strictly limits those persons to whom the privileges of the floor during sessions of the House are extended, and that rule prohibits the Chair from entertaining requests for suspension or waiver of that rule. As reiterated as recently as August 22, 1974, by Speaker Albert under the principle stated in Deschler's Procedure, chapter 4, section 3.4, the rule strictly limits the number of committee staff permitted on the floor at one time during the consideration of measures reported from their committees. This permission does not extend to Members' personal staff except when a Member has an amendment actually pending during the five-minute rule. To this end, the Chair requests all Members and committee staff to cooperate to assure that not more than the proper number of staff are on the floor, and then only during the actual consideration of measures reported from their committees. The Chair will again extend this admonition to all properly admitted majority and minority staff by insisting that their presence on the floor, including the areas behind the rail, be restricted to those periods during which their supervisors have specifically requested their presence. The Chair stated this policy in the 97th Congress, and an increasing number of Members have insisted on strict enforcement of the rule. The Chair has consulted with and has the concurrence of the Minority Leader with respect to this policy and has directed [the Doorkeeper] and the Sergeant-at-arms to assure proper enforcement of the rule.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, JANUARY 21, 1986

The SPEAKER. Rule XXXII strictly limits those persons to whom the privileges of the floor during sessions of the House are extended, and that rule prohibits the Chair from entertaining requests for suspension or waiver of that rule. As reiterated by the Chair on January 25, 1983, and January 3, 1985, and as stated in chapter 4, section 3.4 of Deschler-Brown's Procedure in the House of Representatives, the rule strictly limits the number of committee staff on the floor at one time during the consideration of measures reported from their committees. This permission does not extend to members' personal staff except when a member's amendment is actually pending during the five-minute rule. It also does not extend to personal staff of members who are sponsors of pending bills or who are engaging in special orders. The Chair requests the cooperation of all members and committee staff to assure that only the proper number of staff are on the floor, and then only during the consideration of measures reported from their committees. The Chair is making this statement and reiterating this policy because of concerns expressed by many members about the number of committee staff on the floor during the last weeks of the first session. The Chair requests each chairman, and each ranking minority member, to submit to the [Doorkeeper] Sergeant-at-arms a list of staff who are to be allowed on the floor during the consideration of a measure reported by their committee. Each staff person should exchange his or her ID for a "committee staff" badge which is to be worn while on the floor. The Chair has consulted with the Minority Leader and will continue to consult with him. The Chair has furthermore directed the [Doorkeeper and] Sergeant-at-arms to assure proper enforcement of rule XXXII.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, AUGUST 1, 1996

The SPEAKER. The Chair will make a statement. On May 25, 1995, the Chair took the opportunity to reiterate guidelines on the prohibition against former Members exercising floor privileges during the consideration of a matter in which they have a personal or pecuniary interest or are employed or retained as a lobbyist.

Clause 3 of House rule XXXII and the subsequent guidelines issued by previous Speakers on this matter make it clear that consideration of legislative measures is not limited solely to those pending before the House. Consideration also includes all bills and resolutions either which have been called up by a full committee or subcommittee or on which hearings have been held by a full committee or subcommittee of the House.

Former Members can be prohibited from privileges of the floor, the Speaker's lobby and respective Cloakrooms should it be ascertained they have direct interests in legislation that is before a subcommittee, full committee, or the House. Not only do those circumstances prohibit former Members but the fact that a former Member is employed or retained by a lobbying organization attempting to directly or indirectly influence pending legislation is cause for prohibiting access to the House Chamber.

First announced by Speaker O'Neill on January 6, 1977, again on June 7, 1978, and by Speaker Foley in 1994, the guidelines were intended to prohibit former Members from using their floor privileges under the restrictions laid out in this rule. This restriction extends not only to the House floor but adjacent rooms, the Cloakrooms, and the Speaker's lobby.

Members who have reason to know that a former Member is on the floor inconsistent with clause 3, rule XXXII, should notify the Sergeant-at-arms promptly.

2. INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Speaker's policy announced on January 3, 1983, will continue to apply in the 105th Congress.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, JANUARY 3, 1983

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to make a statement concerning the introduction and reference of bills and resolutions. As Members are aware, they have the privilege today of introducing bills. Heretofore on the opening day of a new Congress, several hundred bills have been introduced. The Chair will do his best to refer as many bills as possible, but he will ask the indulgence of Members if he is unable to refer all the bills that may be introduced. Those bills which are not referred and do not appear in the Record as of today will be included in the next day's Record and printed with a date as of today.

The Chair has advised all officers and employees of the House that are involved in the processing of bills that every bill, resolution, memorial, petition or other material that is placed in the hopper must bear the signature of a Member. Where a bill or resolution is jointly sponsored, the signature must be that of the Member first named thereon. The bill clerk is instructed to return to the Member any bill which appears in the hopper without an original signature. This procedure was inaugurated in the 92nd Congress. It has worked well, and the Chair thinks that it is essential to continue this practice to insure the integrity of the process by which legislation is introduced in the House.

3. UNANIMOUS-CONSENT REQUESTS FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Speaker will continue to follow the guidelines recorded in section 757 of the House Rules and Manual conferring recognition for unanimous-consent requests for the consideration of bills and resolutions only when assured that the majority and minority floor leadership and committee and subcommittee Chairmen and ranking minority members have no objection. Consistent with those guidelines, and with the Chair's inherent power of recognition under clause 2 of rule XIV, the Chair, and any occupant of the Chair appointed as Speaker pro tempore pursuant to clause 7 of rule I, will decline recognition for unanimous-consent requests for consideration of bills and resolutions without assurances that the request has been so cleared. This denial of recognition by the Chair will not reflect necessarily any personal opposition on the part of the Chair to orderly consideration of the matter in question, but will reflect the determination upon the part of the Chair that orderly procedures will be followed; that is, procedures involving consultation and agreement between floor and committee leadership on both sides of the aisle. In addition to unanimous-consent requests for the consideration of bills and resolutions, section 757 of the House Rules Manual also chronicles examples where the Speaker applied this policy on recognition to other related unanimous-consent requests, such as requests to consider a motion to suspend the rules on a nonsuspension day and requests to permit consideration of nongermane amendments to bills. Such applications of the Speaker's guidelines will continue in the 105th Congress.

As announced by the Speaker, April 26, 1984, the Chair will entertain unanimous-consent requests to dispose of Senate amendments to House bills on the Speaker's table if made by the chairman of the committee with jurisdiction, or by another committee member authorized to make the request.

4. RECOGNITION FOR ONE-MINUTE SPEECHES AND SPECIAL ORDERS

The Speaker's policy announced on January 25, 1984, with respect to recognition for one-minute speeches will apply during the 105th Congress with the continued understanding that the Chair reserves the authority to restrict one-minute speeches at the beginning of the legislative day. The Speaker's following policies announced in the 104th Congress will also continue through the 105th Congress: (1) the Speaker's residual policy for the recognition of special-order speeches absent an agreement between the leaderships to the contrary; and (2) the Speaker's policy for recognition for "morning hour" debate and restricted special-order speeches, announced on May 12, 1995, with the further clarification that reallocations of time within each leadership special-order period will be permitted with notice to the Chair.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, AUGUST 8, 1984, RELATIVE TO RECOGNITION FOR ONE-MINUTE SPEECHES

The SPEAKER. After consultation with and concurrence by the Minority Leader, the Chair announces that he will institute a new policy of recognition for "one-minute" speeches and for special order requests. The Chair will alternate recognition for one-minute speeches between majority and minority Members, in the order in which they seek recognition in the well under present practice from the Chair's right to the Chair's left, with possible exceptions for Members of the leadership and Members having business requests. The Chair, of course, reserves the right to limit one-minute speeches to a certain period of time or to a special place in the program on any given day, with notice to the leadership.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, JANUARY 4, 1995, RELATIVE TO "RESIDUAL" POLICY FOR RECOGNITION FOR SPECIAL-ORDER SPEECHES

The SPEAKER. Absent an agreement between the leaderships regarding recognition for requests to address the House for "special-order speeches" at the end of legislative business, the Chair will decline recognition for permission to address the House for any period extending more than one week in advance of the request. In accordance with the Speaker's policy as enunciated on August 8, 1984, the Chair will first recognize Members who wish to address the House for five minutes or less, alternating between majority and minority Members in the order in which those permissions were granted by the House. Thereafter, the Chair will recognize Members who wish to address the House for longer than five minutes up to one hour, again alternating between majority and minority Members in the order in which those permissions were granted by the House. However, unlike the Speaker's policy of August 8, 1984, the Chair will alternate daily between parties recognition for the first special order longer than five minutes regardless of the order in which permissions were granted.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER JANUARY 4, 1995, RELATIVE TO SPECIAL-ORDER SPEECHES AND MORNING-HOUR DEBATE

The SPEAKER. Upon consultation with the Minority Leader, the Chair announces that the format for recognition for "morning-hour" debate and restricted special-order speeches, which began on February 23, 1994, will continue [through the 105th Congress], as outlined below:

On Tuesdays, following legislative business, the Chair may recognize Members for special-order speeches up to midnight, and such speeches may not extend beyond midnight. On all other days of the week, the Chair may recognize Members for special-order speeches up to four hours after the conclusion of five-minute special-order speeches. Such speeches may not extend beyond the four-hour limit without the permission of the Chair, which may be granted only with advance consultation between the leaderships and notification to the House. However, at no time shall the Chair recognize for any special-order speeches beyond midnight.

The Chair will first recognize Members for five-minute special-order speeches, alternating initially and subsequently between the parties regardless of the date the order was granted by the House. The Chair will then recognize longer special orders speeches. The four-hour limitation will be divided between the majority and minority parties. Each party is entitled to reserve its first hour for respective leaderships or their designees. Recognition will alternate initially and subsequently between the parties, regardless of the date the order was granted by the House.

The allocation of time within each party's two-hour period (or shorter period if prorated to end by midnight) is to be determined by a list submitted to the Chair by the respective leaderships. Members may not sign up for any special-order speeches earlier than one week prior to the special order, and additional guidelines may be established for such sign-ups by the respective leaderships.

Pursuant to clause 9(b)(1) of rule I, the television cameras will not pan the Chamber, but a "crawl" indicating morning hour or that the House has completed its legislative business and is proceeding with special-order speeches will appear on the screen. Other television camera adaptations during this period may be announced by the Chair.

The continuation of this format for recognition by the Speaker is without prejudice to the Speaker's ultimate power of recognition under clause 2 of rule XIV should circumstances so warrant.

5. DECORUM IN DEBATE

The Speaker's policies with respect to decorum in debate announced on January 3, 1991, and January 4, 1995, will apply during the 105th Congress as supplemented by an announcement made by the Speaker earlier today.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER, JANUARY 3, 1991

The SPEAKER. It is essential that the dignity of the proceedings of the House be preserved, not only to assure that the House conducts its business in an orderly fashion but to permit Members to properly comprehend and participate in the business of the House. To this end, and in order to permit the Chair to understand and to correctly put the question on the numerous requests that are made by Members, the Chair requests that Members and others who have the privileges of the floor desist from audible conversation in the Chamber while the business of the House is being conducted. The Chair would encourage all Members to review rule XIV to gain a better understanding of the proper rules of decorum expected of them, and especially: First, to avoid "personalities" in debate with respect to references to other Members, the Senate, and the President; second, to address the Chair while standing and only when and not beyond the time recognized, and not to address the television or other imagined audience; third, to refrain from passing between the Chair and the Member speaking, or directly in front of a Member speaking from the well; fourth, to refrain from smoking in the Chamber; and generally to display the same degree of respect to the Chair and other Members that every Member is due.

The Speaker's announcement of January 4, 1995, will continue to apply in the 105th Congress as follows:

The Chair would like all Members to be on notice that the Chair intends to strictly enforce the limitations on debate. Furthermore, the Chair has the authority to immediately interrupt Members in debate who transgress rule XIV by failing to avoid "personalities" in debate with respect to references to the Senate, the President, and other Members, rather than wait for Members to complete their remarks.

Finally, it is not in order to speak disrespectfully of the Speaker; and under the precedents the sanctions for such violations transcend the ordinary requirements for timeliness of challenges. This separate treatment is recorded in volume 2 of Hinds' Precedents, at section 1248 and was reiterated on January 19, 1995.

6. CONDUCT OF VOTES BY ELECTRONIC DEVICE

The Speaker's policy announced on January 4, 1995, will continue through 105th Congress.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to enunciate a clear policy with respect to the conduct of electronic votes.

As Members are aware, clause 5 of rule XV provides that Members shall have not less than 15 minutes in which to answer an ordinary rollcall vote or quorum call. The rule obviously establishes 15 minutes as a minimum. Still, with the cooperation of the Members, a vote can easily be completed in that time. The events of October 30, 1991, stand out as proof of this point. On that occasion, the House was considering a bill in the Committee of the Whole under a special rule that placed an overall time limit on the amendment process, including the time consumed by rollcalls. The Chair announced, and then strictly enforced, a policy of closing electronic votes as soon as possible after the guaranteed period of 15 minutes. Members appreciated and cooperated with the Chair's enforcement of the policy on that occasion.

The Chair desires that the example of October 30, 1991, be made the regular practice of the House. To that end, the Chair enlists the assistance of all Members in avoiding the unnecessary loss of time in conducting the business of the House. The Chair encourages all Members to depart for the Chamber promptly upon the appropriate bell and light signal. As in recent Congresses, the cloakrooms should not forward to the Chair requests to hold a vote by electronic device, but should simply apprise inquiring Members of the time remaining on the voting clock.

Although no occupant of the Chamber would prevent a Member who is in the well of the Chamber before the announcement of the result from casting his or her vote, each occupant of the Chair will have the full support of the Speaker in striving to close each electronic vote at the earliest opportunity. Members should not rely on signals relayed from outside the Chamber to assume that votes will be held open until they arrive in the Chamber.

7. USE OF HANDOUTS ON HOUSE FLOOR

The Speaker's policy announced on September 27, 1995, will continue through 105th Congress.

The SPEAKER. A recent misuse of handouts on the floor of the House has been called to the attention of the Chair and the House. At the bipartisan request of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, the Chair announces that all handouts distributed on or adjacent to the House floor by Members during House proceedings must bear the name of the Member authorizing their distribution. In addition, the content of those materials must comport with standards of propriety applicable to words spoken in debate or inserted in the Record. Failure to comply with this admonition may constitute a breach of decorum and may give rise to a question of privilege.

The Chair would also remind Members that pursuant to clause 4, rule XXXII, staff are prohibited from engaging in efforts in the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto to influence Members with regard to the legislation being amended. Staff cannot distribute handouts.

In order to enhance the quality of debate in the House, the Chair would ask Members to minimize the use of handouts.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING COMMISSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). The Chair announces the Speaker's appointment, pursuant to the provisions of 40 United States Code 175 and 176, the Chair appoints the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY] and the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT] as Members of the House Office Building Commission to serve with himself.

APPOINTMENT OF INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR THE 105TH CONGRESS

The Chair announces, pursuant to the provisions of section 2 of rule VI, the Speaker, majority leader, and minority leader jointly appoint Mr. John W. Lainhart, IV, to the position of inspector general for the House of Representatives for the 105th Congress.

WAIVER FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE APPOINTMENT OF UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. DREIER) laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and ordered printed.

To the Congress of the United States:

I am pleased to transmit herewith for your immediate consideration and enactment legislation to provide a waiver from certain provisions relating to the appointment of the United States Trade Representative.

This draft bill would authorize the President, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint Charlene Barshefsky as the United States Trade Representative, notwithstanding any limitations imposed by certain provisions of law. The Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995 amended the provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 regarding the appointment of the United States Trade Representative and the Deputy United States Trade Representatives by imposing certain limitations on their appointment. These limitations only became effective with respect to the appointment of the United States Trade Representative and Deputy United States Trade Representatives on January 1, 1996, and do not apply to individuals who were serving in one of those positions on that date and continue to serve in them. Because Charlene Barshefsky was appointed Deputy United States Trade Representative on May 28, 1993, and has continued to serve in that position since then, the limitations in the Lobbying Disclosure Act, which became effective on January 1, 1996, do not apply to her in her capacity as Deputy United States Trade Representative and it is appropriate that they not apply to her if she is appointed to be the United States Trade Representative.

I have today nominated Charlene Barshefsky to be the next United States Trade Representative. She has done an outstanding job as Deputy United States Trade Representative since 1993 and as Acting United States Trade Representative for the last 9 months. I am confident she will make an excellent United States Trade Representative. I urge the Congress to take prompt and favorable action on this legislation.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, January 7, 1997.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 1997, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida [Mrs. THURMAN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mrs. THURMAN addressed the House. Her remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

TIME TO SOLVE THE NATION'S PROBLEMS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. FOLEY] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I am, in fact, delighted to be the first person to give special orders, and obviously the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER] was scheduled to be, but he is presiding in the chair.

I had the great fortune as a freshman Member of the 104th Congress to be the first to deliver a 1-minute speech on this floor. I return to Congress very proud that the members of the 16th District have chosen to ask me to serve them once again in this very high honor in the U.S. Congress.

We had a lot of debate today, a lot of acrimony, a lot of discussion about the future of this Congress and its Speaker. We have concluded that debate with reelecting NEWT GINGRICH, the gentleman from Georgia, as Speaker.

I implore Members on all sides of the aisle, both sides of the aisle, that it is now time to come together, in the spirit of this country, in the pride of this Nation, to start solving our Nation's problems, to start solving our Nation's ills, to focus on things that will make people's lives better rather than focusing on things that will destroy people's individual lives. This Chamber and this Government is bigger than this Member, it is bigger than the Speaker, it is bigger than anybody else's ego. It is about helping Americans help themselves. It is about instilling in our children a knowledge and a wisdom that through hard work, you can overcome any adversity.

But if this Chamber operates much like it did in the 104th Congress, with bitterness and rancor and personal animosity, we will not set an example for the future leaders of this Nation. We will not set an example for children to look up to this body and say, "I, too, would like to be a leader in the Congress. I, too, would like to serve my community." We will denigrate into an embarrassment.

So I ask my fellow Members, from all walks of life, from all localities, to think first about what is good for America, not what is good for the Republican Party or the Democratic Party, what is good for this Nation. A balanced budget, saving our Nation from fiscal crisis. The education of our children, to prepare them for the 21st century, to prepare them with skills that will give them jobs that will allow them to provide for themselves and their families.

To reach beyond partisanship, in a spirit of cooperation, to fight together against crime that threatens every American, crime in our schools, violence against our teachers, crimes in our malls and in our communities that frighten our citizens, regardless whether they be seniors or young adults. To work together on Medicare fraud and abuse, and save our Medicare Program so that we will have a system that ensures that every American will receive Medicare when they grow to the day to need it.

Let us also cause special focus on the illnesses that hurt our American citizens: AIDS, Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease, cancer, leukemia, tuberculosis, to name but a few. Sudden infant death syndrome, to name another. If we would use our energies to focus our resources through the National Institutes of Health to try and find cures for these diseases, we will do more for humanity in this Chamber, we will do more for the future of this world and this Nation than any 5-minute speech or any special order or any rancor or debate.

This Nation has given 435 individuals the chance to represent their communities. I know that the Members are up to the task of facing that challenge. I know that each Member, regardless of their party, deeply loves this Nation.

But I also know that if we proceed in the 105th as we did in the 104th with gridlock, acrimony, personal attack, and negativity, that none of the successes will be possible. We will be mired in failure, mired in debate that is nonproductive. So I ask in this first day of the new Congress that we join together to make every citizen proud of the conduct of each individual Member and all Members of this House; that the Democrats join me in working with Speaker GINGRICH, in assuring that the Speakership is respected, that the institution of governance of the House of Representatives is brought to the highest standard, and that we work together for all of the best interests of this Nation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Oregon [Ms. FURSE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

ELECTION OF THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE: A HISTORIC DAY

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. FOLEY). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GEKAS] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, we have heard several allusions throughout the day of the nature of the historic event in which we participated, the election of the Speaker of the House for the 105th session. That is more than rhetoric, Mr. Speaker.

Have Members ever heard of the name of Jonathan Dayton? Jonathan Dayton of New Jersey was elected Speaker of the House in the fifth session in 1797. So when we say today's event was historical, we really mean it. It is a repetition of the preservation of our liberties that emanated from the first and second terms of George Washington and the Fifth Congress, which marked his exit from public service, and has run down to today, when we repeated the process in the preservation of those same liberties which they fought so hard to create for us in the first place.

So the message for the day for our constituents is that the election of the Speaker today is a purely political process. When we say "political process," that does not demean it, because many in the world today will say, he is a politician, or he is involved in politics, denoting the worst in humanity. But the preservation of our liberties to which I have made reference, beginning with the First Congress and then reendorsed in the Fifth Congress and here today in the 105th, became part and parcel of our history because of the political process it involves.

So we had the spectacle today of the minority Democrats nominating their favorite son while the Republicans chose to nominate the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. GINGRICH. What happened? Through the political process, GINGRICH has been elected Speaker of the House. We should honor that. It is the duty and right of the majority to select one of its own to lead the agenda for the ensuing Congress, and we have done so. Now it is time to put everything aside and proceed with that very same agenda.

I also want to comment on some other part of the proceedings here today that was very important but very likely accepted by the general public, because we have not made it clear. When we established the rules of the House, and the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER, alluded to it in his prefatory remarks during the debate on the rules, we were reendorsing, reconfirming here today, historically what the 104th Congress under the majority Republicans was able to fashion; and the 104th Congress, one step of which, in which I was personally involved and of which I am very proud, is the elimination of proxy voting in committee.

When I came to the Congress, I had a matter that I wanted to put in front of the Committee on the Judiciary having to do with the death penalty for assassination of the President, God forbid that that should ever occur, and some other features. On the first time that I proposed this to the Committee on the Judiciary, I was outvoted 30 to 15. Fifteen Republicans voted with me, two Democrats voted on the other side. How could I lose 30 to 15? By the use of the chairman at that time of the proxy vote, which he had in hand, and voted his colleagues on the committee no, no, no, against my proposition.

We have eliminated that forever. The Committee on Rules was bright enough to be able to do so. We reendorsed it today.

I yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER].

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate my friend for his very fine statement. I would say that we did a survey of committee chairmen and others in leadership positions on the impact of proxy voting, to see whether or not they liked it. It has made it, in fact, more difficult, but in trying to get the Congress to comply with the laws that other Americans have to comply with, showing up for work seems to be sort of a natural. We do have that.

But committee chairmen, in the survey that we had that was sent back, overwhelmingly supported the idea of maintaining the elimination of proxy voting. My friend was entirely right on that statement. I thank him for his compliment.

Mr. GEKAS. I thank the gentleman. This is a historic day. Speaker Jonathan Dayton in 1797, the Speaker of the House duly elected by a political process then in the Fifth Congress, would be proud of us if he were here today. We have adopted rules, put our election of committee people into action, and now we are prepared for the work of the people and the agenda of the 105th Congress.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today because we are about to begin the work of the people's business and all is not right in the House of the people. All is not right with the person who is supposed to lead the 105th Congress to do the business of the people. There is a cloud hanging over the chair of the Speaker, a cloud that has never existed in the history of this Chamber of the people, a chamber that is constitutionally charged to carry out the sacred business of representative democracy.

And yet, we are asked to carry on the people's business like nothing happened, like we haven't swept anything under the rug, like the faint odor of a political deal is not seeping into this hallowed Chamber.

Mr. Speaker, I am reminded of the time when a fellow Texan, Jim Wright sat up there under similar circumstances. There was a time when a cloud hung over his head, when the position of the Speaker, the chair of the third highest elected representative of the people was called into question.

And, Speaker Jim Wright did the right thing. Speaker Wright did what was good for the House of Representatives and the Nation. He cleared the skies over the speaker's chair. He took himself out of the way of interrupting the legislative course that we now are charged with setting. He didn't wait for the Ethics Committee to find a stain on the Speaker's chair. He knew in his conscience what was best for the country and so does every Member in this body.

Do we really want to begin the 105th Congress with the first mark on the Speaker's chair? I think not and I'm sure all right thinking Members feel the same. Jim Wright knew how to bow out with a sense of class and what a true "higher ethical standard" for the Speaker really is.

Do we really want to return to the "in your face" style of politics on the very first day of this new Congress? Do we really want to begin a new Congress waiting to see what the Speaker's fate is for his admitted ethical transgressions? Do we really want to be led by someone who is destined to be disciplined by the 105th Congress?

I respectfully submit that the example of former Speaker Jim Wright is one that needs to be the model for this righteous body. Anything less is an insult to the dignity and the integrity of the office of Speaker.

Mr. Wright acted on behalf of his country and stepped aside. Mr. GINGRICH also knows the right thing to do.

LET THE PUBLIC DECIDE CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. OBEY] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing the Let the Public Decide Campaign Finance Reform Act. Two developments over the last year have demonstrated that for all practical purposes there are no longer any campaign finance rules in this country. One development is the series of court decisions which have resulted in special interest groups being able to get around virtually all limits of existing campaign finance law. They are allowed to do so by engaging in so called independent expenditures or by issuing promotion schemes which maintain the fiction that such groups are not involved in individual campaigns. The second development is the recent series of news stories involving large contributions of so-called soft money to both political parties. The result is that wealthy people and groups can skirt the intention of Congress to limit the amount of influence that wealthy individuals or organizations can have on the political process.

Merely tinkering with existing campaign laws will have no real effect. It will do no good for instance, to pass feel good legislation which would cut the $5,000 limit on contributions by political action committees if companies who finance those political action committees can make indirect expenditures 20 or 30 times as large through other means.

For me, the last election was the last straw on campaign finance. I honestly believe that this problem can only be addressed with a flat out elimination of all private money in general elections. That will eliminate the soft money problem and many of the other spectacles we have seen recently. The legislation I am pushing contains a congressional finding that the existing system has so corrupted public confidence in its own form of government that Congress must take major steps for campaign finance which so far have been blocked by the courts. We are doing so because some constitutional scholars suggest that we may be able to move the Supreme Court to change its mind if Congress makes such a finding. But, if the Supreme Court continues to block the kind of reforms I have in my bill, the bill provides for an immediate consideration by the Congress of a constitutional amendment which would give Congress the authority it needs to regulate campaign spending.

The only way to fundamentally change the current system is to take out all private money from financing general elections. I make no apology for reaching that conclusion. In a democracy, elections are not private events; they are the most public events that occur in our national life. Elections belong to the people and they should be financed that way, not by the well-heeled and well-connected.

The Let the Public Decide Campaign Reform Act would:

Forbid all private funding in general elections. But, the public must understand that political campaign cannot be financed through immaculate conception. Elections would be financed by voluntary contributions from individuals to a Grass Roots Good Citizenship Fund. To raise the necessary funding, the Federal Election Commission would be required to conduct a major national television advertising campaign informing the public of the opportunity to eliminate the influence of interest groups on elections by making voluntary contributions to that fund. Those voluntary contributions would be supplemented by a one-tenth of 1 percent to be paid by all corporations with profits above $10 million.

Eliminate the "soft money" loophole, which allows huge amounts of money from wealthy individuals and corporations to go to political parties and benefit congressional candidates.

Establish spending limits on how much congressional candidates can spend, with some flexibility because of the different costs to run for office in different parts of the country.

Allow the American public to determine the amount of money each candidate receives in the general election by basing the amount on the electoral support that the candidate or his preceding party nominees received in that district over the last 5 elections. It would also allow third-party and independent candidates to receive public funding based on their demonstrated public support.

Allow private money to be contributed only to primary elections based on the principle that each political party has its own basic constituencies, and that the parties themselves have a role in deciding how their own nominees are chosen;

Distinguish in primary elections between broad-based "little people" PAC's and "High Roller" PAC's, and limit contributions from "High Roller" PAC's.

Under my bill, the American people themselves would actually be able to decide how much will be spent on congressional campaigns and how much each candidate will receive. Democracy cannot function if American citizens do not themselves take responsibility for supporting the most public events that occur in this country—our own national elections.

REDUCING THE TAX RATE ON CAPITAL GAINS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I have taken out this special order, and as we all saw, I got in the chair before I was able to deliver it, so I am pleased that my friend, the gentleman from Florida, was able to deliver the first special order of the 105th Congress.

Mr. Speaker, I have taken this time out to talk about legislation which I very proudly introduced today with a number of my colleagues. We know that the message that came from last November's election was that the American people want us to put the partisan political pyrotechnics aside and they want us to do a job.

I am very gratified that we saw Democrats and Republicans alike, embrace what for lack of a better term, have to be considered traditional Republican themes. The themes that the President ran on, the themes that Republicans and many Democratic candidates for Congress ran on, were balancing the budget, trying to reduce the size and scope of government, reducing the tax burden on working Americans. Those are the sorts of things that I believe a majority of this institution want to see us deal with.

I think we do have an opportunity to proceed in a bipartisan way. We have gone through an extraordinarily difficult and challenging day, and the next couple of weeks are going to be tough, but I hope and pray that we will be able to put the battles that we have seen in the media over the past couple of weeks behind us and do what I believe the American people want us to do, and that is govern.

I have done what I believe is my bit here on the opening day. I am very pleased that I was able to join with Democrats and Republicans in introducing legislation which will go a long way toward dealing with one of the problems that we have in this country, and that is lack of available capital.

What I have done is introduced a bill which is numbered H.R. 14. It is H.R. 14 because it is going to take the top 28-percent rate on capital gains and reduce that to 14 percent as a top rate.

In years past we have heard this rhetoric that reducing the tax on capital gains is nothing but a tax cut for the rich. But I was gratified that in the Presidential campaign, Bill Clinton talked about reducing the tax rate on capital gains for homeowners. He wanted to target it. I happen to believe very strongly that rather than targeting it, we should allow the American people to make a determination as to exactly which capital asset they have that they want to sell and have a lower rate on capital gains for. I want them to be able to make that decision themselves.

In the past we have heard that there is a tremendous cost to reducing the tax rate on capital gains. The fact of the matter is we have, with this bill, done a great deal of study on it. It is not only a theoretical study, but it is empirical evidence which has shown, going all the way back to 1921 when Andrew Mellon was Treasury Secretary under President Warren G. Harding, reducing that top rate increases revenues to the Treasury. John F. Kennedy we know did it in the early 1960's, Ronald Reagan did it in the 1980's, and we have a good opportunity to do this today.

What will it create? It will create, I believe, a tremendous flow in revenues to the Treasury. Why? Because there is between $7 trillion and $8 trillion of locked-in capital that is there. People are not willing to sell it because of the punitive tax rate that exists. So, clearly in the first years we would see a great boost.

In 1993, when I assembled the zero capital gains tax caucus, we found over a 7-year period a 15-percent capital gains tax rate would increase the gross domestic product by $1.3 trillion, create 1 million jobs, and generate $220 billion in revenues to the Federal Treasury.

I am convinced that we can do this in a bipartisan way, so much so that of the original cosponsors, there are two Republicans and three Democrats. I am very pleased that my colleague, the gentlewoman from Kansas City, MO, KAREN MCCARTHY, has joined as a lead cosponsor of this; a great member of the Committee on Ways and Means, the gentleman from Pennsylvania, PHIL ENGLISH, who is beginning his second term, has joined in this; the gentleman from Virginia, Mr. JIM MORAN, a Democrat, has joined as an original cosponsor; and the leader of the Blue Dogs on this issue is the gentleman from Texas, Mr. RALPH HALL. So we have three Democrats and two Republicans.

While some pundits out there may like to argue that the era of bipartisanship is over, they are wrong, because on the opening day we have begun in a bipartisan way to deal with this very important question of reducing that top rate on capital gains to help middle-income wage earners and all Americans, and those at the bottom end of the spectrum, as we try to get capital into the inner city and other spots which are desperately in need, as Speaker GINGRICH mentioned in his acceptance speech today.

Mr. Speaker, I wish everyone a very happy, prosperous, and healthy 1997.

AMERICA'S POLICIES IN CUBA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 1997, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM] is recognized for 20 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I take this opportunity to have this few minutes of conversation about a very important topic on this first day of Congress. Just a couple of days ago, on January 3d of this year, President Clinton announced his decision to suspend for the second time Title III of what is known as the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act, otherwise known as the Helms-Burton law. This is a very significant event, and one which I fear is going to lead to lots more problems rather than solutions with relationships that we have in this western hemisphere, with the United States and Cuba and our allies.

Let me explain this and put it in context. Cuba has been a dictatorship under Fidel Castro for some 37 years. During that time I think the world is fully aware of the many human rights violations this dictator has committed and his regime has committed. I think the world is probably also fully aware that Cuba and Fidel Castro remain only one of two Communist dictatorships left after the fall of the Soviet Union and changes around the world and tendencies towards more democracies, as we have seen in the last decade or so.

It is shameful that we have today, only 90 miles across the ocean from the United States, just 90 miles away, a Communist dictatorship of the nature Fidel Castro runs. We have tried over the years since the failure of the Bay of Pigs, which indeed was tragic and a shameful part of our history, frankly, that we did not support that invasion fully as it should have been supported. We have tried numerous times since then in small, incremental ways, to either oust Fidel Castro or to change his policies. It should be abundantly clear to anyone who has observed this man over the years that he is not about to change his stripes. He is not about to give up his ruthless power. He is not going to do that voluntarily at least.

For those who wish democracy in Cuba, I can only say I hope there is democracy, like you do, but it is wishful thinking if you think it is going to come about as long as Fidel Castro is in power. The only way to see democracy in Cuba and to see our hemisphere Democratic and to have normal relations again with that small Nation state to the south is for Fidel Castro to leave office and for those who supported him for all these years to end that support.

Let me tell the Members the biggest problem facing us in seeing that accomplished in the current time frame. It is not from the Soviet Union. It does not exist anymore. It is not from Russia. It is not from some far-flung place. It is from our allies in Europe and in Canada and in Mexico who supply the currency, who supply the economic support necessary to prop up this regime, either directly through their governments, or more frequently, through companies or business entities that invest in Cuba that are involved in providing the liquidity and the capital that allow him to continue to exist.

He makes modest changes in how he does business, which have no bearing in reality upon ever becoming truly democratic or allowing a true market system to work, and he is given a reward to do this by the continued open door policies of these allies who pour these dollars in through the businesses that operate there.

In Title III of the law that is known as Helms-Burton that was passed by the last Congress, there was a provision very important to stopping this. That provision stated that an American business or an individual who had been harmed because a business at one time before Castro in Cuba that was American had been confiscated by Castro, confiscated by the Cuban government after the revolution that brought Castro to power, a person, an American situated in this case, either a business or an individual, could sue a company or a business in another nation, Europe or Canada or Mexico or wherever, who did business by investing in and supporting in some way the business entity that had been confiscated that had previously been an American-owned business in Cuba; sue in the courts of the United States for damages, sue in order to be able to recover the lost value of the property that had been confiscated from the companies doing business to allow Cuba to continue to exist by propping up the confiscated property and the business that might have been confiscated, if you will.

What President Clinton has done is succumbed to our allies who have said, oh, this is horrible. You are going to allow our businesses in our countries to be sued for damages by American citizens because they are investing in Cuba and in formerly American property interests in Cuba.

And President Clinton, who has the power under this bill, and I am not at all sure he ought to have it, but he has the power under this bill for every 6-month period to waive these provisions, just on January 3d, a few days ago, January 3d of this year, for the second time since Helms-Burton has been the law, chose to waive it and say we are not going to enforce that at this point in time.

□ 1815

There can be no lawsuits, no litigation in American courts against foreign corporations, foreign business interests that invest in previously owned American property in Cuba or American interests in Cuba. That is a horrible decision by the President. It is outrageous what he did. It is something that kowtows to the big business interests of our allies and is detrimental to everything that we believe in and to the best interests of our national security and our interests in this hemisphere.

Our interest is in having democracy in Cuba and that can only happen when the noose is tied tightly enough around Castro and the current Cuban regime that he is ousted and that a new government comes into place. The economy of that country is dependent upon these investments and anything we can do to stop the money from flowing and the support from flowing into this government and into its economy is essential and important and critical, not only to the freedom-loving people who want to be free in Cuba, Cuban Americans and Cubans everywhere, but also to America, the United States' national security interest.

I submit that the President has also played a lot of politics with this. He has indicated that while he is only doing it for 6 months that he plans to make this suspension indefinite, that he apparently has no intention of ever letting title III become law and effective and allow these lawsuits to take place. That is not what he indicated when he first signed that bill. There was no indication of that. He said to the Cubans of the world and the Cuban American community in particular, I am signing Helms-Burton, I am proud of it, support me in the next election, support my party in the next election and you will see that I am true to my word and we will tighten the noose around Castro and bring about more democracy.

Oh, I know there are those who are going to say, well, there is some bargaining going on, there is some quid pro quo, there is some progress being made, and so on and so forth.

There is no real progress being made. Castro's playing us for a sucker, if that is the case, and this administration is blind to that fact. You cannot have your cake and eat it, too, Mr. President. You must understand that if we are to end this tyrannical dictatorship south of the United States, only 90 miles off our coast, a true embargo has to be enforced, a true economic embargo. And this provision, this title III provision of the Helms-Burton law allowing Americans to sue in court companies abroad that are doing business and investing in American interests, formerly American interests in Cuba, has to be allowed to go forward. And if it does, then and only then do we have a chance of ousting Castro in some more peaceable manner other than short of some invading force, which none of us are predicting or expecting or advocating.

But we do need to do what we have to do, and I believe, Mr. President, that you have made a very big mistake in this regard, and I think it borders upon hypocrisy for others to say that this is a wonderful piece of legislation and then we are not going to let it go into play and not going to enforce it. That is exactly what some have said.

I hope and pray that my colleagues will join with me in the next few months as we go back and revisit this issue legislatively. If the President is not willing to enforce title III of Helms-Burton and is going to continue to waive it, then I would suggest it is within our power and this Congress should pass a law that says that that provision of title III is no longer eligible for waiver, that it indeed is the law of this land, that Americans who formerly had an interest in Cuba can sue foreign companies investing in those property interests in Cuba, to heck with what the President has to say about it. He should not even have a say at all, if that is the way he is going to act on this proposition.

I would urge my colleagues to examine it. It is a very important ingredient in our foreign policy. We should never have allowed a dictatorship to exist for 37 years of such a vile nature as we have in Castro south of here, just 90 miles off our coast. And there is no reason, no reason to allow our allies and their business interests to continue to prop up that dictatorship with its human rights violations any longer. The time has long since passed to do something about it. Let us act in this Congress to force the hand of this President and to allow American citizens to sue, at the very least to try to bring some pressure that can be legitimately brought on the Cuban regime in addition to enforcing the embargo and whatever else we can do within our powers.

RESIGNATION FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. BROWNBACK submitted the following resignation from the House of Representatives:

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, November 26, 1996.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
H232 The Capitol, Washington, DC.

DEAR NEWT: Attached please find a copy of the letter I have sent to Kansas Governor Bill Graves informing him that I am resigning from the House of Representatives effective at 12:00 p.m. central time on Wednesday, November 27th, 1996.

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve with you in the House of Representatives. We enacted reforms during the 104th Congress that has moved this country in the right direction. I look forward to continuing to work with you to balance the federal budget, reduce the size, scope, and intrusiveness of the federal government, and restore the American Dream.

Sincerely,

SAM BROWNBACK,
Member of Congress.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, November 25, 1996.

Governor BILL GRAVES,
State Capitol, Topeka, KS.

DEAR GOVERNOR GRAVES: For the past two years, it has been my privilege to serve the people of Kansas' Second District as their elected Representative in the U.S. Congress. It has been an eventful tenure.

These are remarkable times, and public servants have a tremendous opportunity and responsibility for making America a better place.

There is much work to be done, and the people rightly expect that we will begin it in earnest. Toward that end, I am scheduled to be sworn in as a U.S. Senator for Kansas at 2:00 p.m. central time, Wednesday, November 27, 1996. Accordingly, I am resigning my seat in the U.S. House of Representatives effective at 12:00 p.m. central time, Wednesday, November 27, 1996.

The work of renewing America is unfinished. I see cause for great hope as I believe we are now clearly focused on those very problems which most confound us. There has never been a challenge which the American nation recognized clearly and approached resolutely which we did not overcome. We have cause for great Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

SAM BROWNBACK.
